OAKLAND A's EXECUTIVE OFFICE

WALTER A. HAAS, JR.
Owner/Managing General Partner

Long considered one of the top business and civic leaders in the United States, Walter A. Haas, Jr. is the man responsible for keeping baseball in Oakland. His belief in the Oakland community, and the surrounding area, paid off with great dividends in 1989, as the A's won baseball's top prize, the world championship. Last year the club won its third consecutive American League pennant and broke the franchise attendance mark for the third consecutive season, attracting 2.9 million fans to the Oakland Coliseum.

In addition to his duties as Owner/Managing General Partner of the Oakland Athletics, Haas is also the Honorary Chairman of the Board of Levi Strauss and Company.

Born on January 24, 1916 in San Francisco, Haas went on to do undergraduate work at the University of California, before earning his MBA at the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration. He has a wealth of business experience as he has headed some of the finest companies in America. Haas is a former Director of Bank of America, United Air Lines and the Pacific Telephone Company. He was also a member of the Trilateral Commission and has been a part of the Executive Committee of the National Alliance of Businessmen.

Almost equal in stature to his business experience is his dedication to the community. Commitment to the community has been a keynote of the Haas ownership of the A's and, when it comes to Walter A. Haas, Jr., this is the norm, not the exception. Currently, he is a member of the National Commission on Public Service and is on the Advisory Council of Reading is Fundamental, Inc. In the past, he has been a member of the Presidential Advisory Council for Minority Enterprise and a Director of the National Urban League. He has also dedicated a large portion of his time to the Federal Government, being a former member of the Presidential Task Force on International Development and a representative of the State Department (Agency for International Development) in Brazil, evaluating the government's projects of assistance to that country.

Additionally, he has been the recipient of countless awards in recognition of both his business and civic expertise. Most recently, he was honored by the World Affairs Council of Northern California in 1988.

Haas married the former Evelyn Danzig in 1940 and they have three children and six grandchildren. The Haas family resides in San Francisco.

WALTER J. HAAS
President/Chief Executive Officer

Overseeing the operation of the entire Oakland Athletics Baseball Company is President and Chief Executive Officer, Walter J. Haas.

Haas, 40, was named to his current post on January 18, 1990 after serving as the club's Executive Vice President for seven years (1980-87) and then as the Chief Operating Officer for two seasons (1988-89). Concern for the community has been a hallmark of the Haas family, and Walter J. Haas has guided the A's Community Affairs Department to its current standing as one of the finest in all of sports.

A fourth-generation San Franciscan, Haas currently serves as the Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Marin Country Day School and is a trustee for the Evelyn and Walter A. Haas, Jr. Fund. He is a former Director of the Major League Promotions Corporation and was honorary Chairman of the San Francisco Chapter of the Legal Assistance to the Elderly, Inc.

Prior to joining the Athletics, Haas served as Grants Manager for Levi Strauss and Company. He also served as business manager for Sons of Champlin, Inc. and as President of Goldmine Records.

Haas is married and has three children. He and his family reside in San Francisco.

THE ATHLETICS FRANCHISE

The 1991 season marks the 11th year under the current ownership. The Haas family took control of the club on November 3, 1980, and has since built the organization into one of the finest in all of professional sports. When they purchased the club from Charlie Finley, the Haas family inherited an organization with a depleted minor league system, a front office of six employees and a team that had lost 187 games the previous two years. Now the team on the field has won more games the past three seasons than any club in baseball, and both the Player Development System and front office rank with the very best. It has been a complete turnaround.

Since the 1981 season, the franchise has now won four American League West division crowns, three consecutive American League pennants, and the 1989 world championship. Oakland is the first team to win three consecutive American League titles since the 1976-78 New York Yankees.

The Athletics' history has been spiced with color and dotted with championships. From their beginnings under Connie Mack in 1901 to Tony La Russa's current version, the Athletics have won a record nine division titles, 15 American League pennants and nine world championships. Mack managed the A's for an incredible 50 seasons until 1950 when he finally gave way to Jimmie Dykes. After nine American League pennants and five world championships the franchise was sold to Arnold Johnson in 1954, and Johnson moved the team to Kansas City for the 1955 seasons. After 13 seasons in Kansas City in which the club never played .500 baseball, Charlie Finley, who had entered the scene in 1960, moved the franchise to Oakland just prior to the 1968 season. In 1969 the A's won 88 games, the most victories for an A's club since 1932, and it would be the fewest wins for the team over the next six years. The A's became one of the dominant teams of the 1970's, winning three consecutive world championships from 1972-74. The franchise again fell on hard times in the late 70's but was brought back to life again when the new ownership took control of the club for the 1981 season.

The 1991 Oakland A's Information Guide was published February 11, 1991 by Jay Alves and Mike Selleck of the A's Baseball Information Department. Additional and updated information, statistics or photos are available at all times to accredited news sources from the Athletics' Baseball Information Department (415) 638-4900, ext. 223.

THE A's IN THE COMMUNITY

Commitment to the surrounding community has been a hallmark of the Oakland Athletics ever since the Haas family assumed ownership of the club in November of 1980. At that time, the A's made a commitment to increase their involvement in the community and to make the game of baseball accessible and enjoyable to all people. It became the A's goal to contribute to civic, youth, disabled, senior citizen and charitable organizations of the Bay Area region by utilizing their various resources.

Early in the Haas family ownership, the club established the A's Community Fund. The A's Community Fund is a non-profit organization that makes it possible for the A's to invite deserving members of the Northern California community out to the ballpark. The Community Fund relies on the support of private individuals, players, corporations and the A's annual Community Fund Golf Tournament for its support.

The Community Fund is administered by the A's Community Affairs Department. With over 50 different programs, the A's have made an effort to reach out to the entire Northern California community. The following organizations are just a few of those that benefit from the A's diverse dedication to the community: East Oakland Youth Development, the Oakland Police Activities League, the Spanish Speaking Foundation, Big Brothers and Big Sisters, the United Way, the Association for Retarded Citizens and the California Congress of Senior Citizens.

The A's Community Affairs Department and the A's Community Fund reflect the club's continuing effort to build the relationship between the team and the community that supports it.

THE WALTER A. HAAS, Jr. COMMUNITY ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Beginning in 1986, the Oakland A's instituted the Walter A. Haas, Jr. Community Achievement Award. The award is given to an Oakland Athletic for achievement on the field and in the community. Dave Henderson was the 1990 recipient.

Past Winners:

1987 Dave Stewart
1988 Storm Davis
1989 Dave Stewart

THE A'S ELEPHANT

Prior to the 1988 season the A's brought back one of the team's most familiar and successful characters from past years -- the Athletics' Elephant. The A's Elephant has been featured in many of the club's promotions and publications. Also, each player wears a special A's Elephant patch on the left sleeve of their uniform. The official uniform patch is a 5 1/4 inch green elephant in white with a yellow "A" on a white blanket.

For 60 years the Athletic Elephant was one of the most popular and colorful logos in all of major league baseball. In 1901 Connie Mack and his Philadelphia Athletics helped form the American League. New York Giants Manager John McGraw dismissed the A's with contempt, calling them "The White Elephants," implying Mack shouldn't be allowed to spend money without supervision. Mack defiantly adopted the White Elephant as the team insignia, and in 1902, the A's won the American League pennant.

The White Elephant remained the team's mascot until later that decade, when it finally made its way to an A's uniform. Its first appearance was on the team's sweaters. In about 1918, the Elephant finally saw game action when Mack had the pachyderm symbol (in blue with a white "A" inside) placed on the left sleeve of every player.

By 1920, Mack had fully adopted the A's Elephant as the team's symbol. Gone was the traditional "A" on the front of the jersey. In was a blue elephant logo. But after a few poor seasons, Mack decided a change was in order. So, in 1924, the blue elephant was replaced by the white elephant on the team's jersey. The new-look pachyderm seemed to do the trick, as the A's played better ball for the next few years.

In 1928, Mack decided the elephant had worn out its brief welcome on the A's jersey fronts. He replaced it with the familiar "A" on the uniforms, and the A's went on to win two World Championships and an AL crown in the next three years. This resurgence was probably due more to the additions of Foxx, Simmons, Grove, Cochrane, et al., than to the elephant's absence.

That was the last year for the elephant on the A's uniform until 1955, when the A's, now in Kansas City, added an elephant patch to their left sleeves. But when Charlie Finley purchased the team in the early sixties, the elephant mascot was once again sent packing, replaced by, of all animals, a mule. This was the last we saw of this loveable A's mascot until 1988.

Keeping with their tradition of looking to the future without forgetting the past, the current A's ownership decided in 1988 that the time was right to bring back the A's elephant. It has once again proven to be a "good luck" charm for the A's, as since its return the Athletics have won three consecutive American League pennants and one world championship.

MANAGER AND COACHES

TONY LA RUSSA

MGR

Anthony La Russa Jr.

1991 Opening Day Age: 46

Born: Tampa, Florida, October 4, 1944

Height: 6-1

Weight: 190

Named as A's manager July 1, 1986

Contract status: Second year of a three-year contract extension (signed July, 1989) through the 1992 season.

Since arriving in Oakland on July 7th, 1986 Tony has helped restore the A's to one of the most powerful clubs in all of baseball. No one has managed the Oakland A's for more games (727) or to more victories (432). Tony's .594 winning percentage as the A's skipper is second only to Dick Williams .603 mark with Oakland. The A's have led the major leagues in victories in each of the last three years, only the 11th time in baseball history a team has accomplished that feat. La Russa's 1988-1990 teams are the first to win three consecutive AL pennants since the 1976-78 Yankees. The A's 1989 World Championship was the fourth for the Athletics since moving to Oakland in 1968, but Tony's first as a major league manager; a career that spans eleven plus seasons. With the addition of last season's 103 victories, La Russa's career record stands at 954-805, a .542 winning percentage. Among current major league managers only Detroit's Sparky Anderson (.560) has a better career winning percentage than Tony.

Returning to the A's was something of a homecoming for Tony. He was signed to his first pro contract by the then Kansas City A's on the night he graduated from high school in 1962. He made his major league debut just one year later with the A's. Tony went on to play professionally for 16 seasons, but never once spent an entire year in the majors. After his stint with the Kansas City in 1963, Tony didn't make it to the majors again until 1968, this time with the A's of Oakland. He went on to play parts of four years in Oakland before finishing out his playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs.

Tony's managerial career began in 1978, when he took over the White Sox' Double-A team in Knoxville. That year his team went 53-25, earning Tony a promotion to the White Sox' coaching staff. At the beginning of 1979, Tony was named the manager of the Sox Triple-A squad in Iowa, but that position didn't last long. On August 2nd of that year, Tony took over the helm of the White Sox, replacing Don Kessinger. Over the next seven years, he established himself as one of the top managers in the majors. His most successful year with the Sox' was 1983, when the club posted a 99-63 record, which was the best in baseball that season. He was rewarded for his effort that year by being named "Manager of the Year" by The Sporting News, the Associated Press and the Baseball Writers Association of America. He had the '84 Sox tied for first place at the All-Star break, before finishing 5th with a 74-88 record. Tony was relieved of his duties with the White Sox on June 19, 1986, and assumed the managers role in Oakland on July 7th, 1986. In just his second full year with the A's, 1988, Tony managed the club to an AL West record 104 victories, the AL pennant and into the World Series. For his efforts that season he once again earned the BBWAA and The Sporting News Manager of the Year honors.

A graduate of Florida State University's School of Law in 1978, Tony passed the bar exam in December of 1979. He is one of only five lawyer/managers in baseball history, the other four—Monte Ward (New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers, late 1880s), Hughie Jennings (Detroit, 1907-20), Miller Huggins (St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees, 1913-29) and Branch Rickey (St. Louis Browns, 1914-15)—are all in the Baseball Hall of Fame.

Tony makes his home in Danville, California with his wife, Elaine, and their two daughters, Bianca Tai (9-14-79) and Devon Kai (8-17-82).

The newest member of Tony La Russa's staff is hitting instructor, Rick Burleson. Burleson, the former major league shortstop, has been a member of the A's organization since 1989.

After retiring as an active player following the 1987 season Rick spent 1988 out of baseball before being named a roving infield instructor in the A's Player Development System prior to the 1989 season. After a year of teaching at the minor league level Burleson moved into the Athletics scouting department and was assigned to cover Orange County in the Southern California area. He now completes his tour through the A's system with his major league assignment this past December.

Nicknamed the "Rooster" during his playing days, Rick was a lifetime .273 hitter during his 13 year major league career that included stops in Boston (1974-80), California (1981-86), and Baltimore (1987). He earned four All-Star appearances, a Gold Glove award and hit .318 (14 for 44) during two appearances in the American League Championship Series (1975 and 1986) plus one World Series (1975). A torn rotator cuff in his right shoulder suffered in 1982 limited Rick to just 51 games from 1982 through 1985 but he completed a successful return with California in 1986 by hitting .284 in 93 games and earning the UPI Comeback Player of the Year award.

Rick resides in La Habra Heights, California with his wife, Karen, and their four children, Tyler, Chad, Kyle and Lauren.

David Edwin Duncan*1991 Opening Day Age: 45Born: Dallas, Texas, September 26, 1945Height: 6-2 Weight: 200

Named as A's pitching coach July 1, 1986

Dave arrived with Tony La Russa in July of 1986 and under Dave's guidance the A's pitching staff has been the best in baseball over the past three years. For the third consecutive season Dave's staff had the lowest ERA in the league, the first staff to earn that honor since the 1968-73 Orioles won six in a row. The A's topped the majors in ERA last year, becoming just the second AL pitching staff to lead the majors in ERA since the inception of the DH in 1973. The other staff was the 1974 A's. Duncan's 1989 staff also boasted four men with 17 or more victories, thus becoming only the third staff (1951 Indians, 1971 Orioles) since the 1927 Yankees to have at least that many pitchers win 17 or more. In addition to the starting four the bullpen once again was one of the best in the business with 64 saves. The pen now has 185 saves in the past three years.

Like his manager, Duncan is no stranger to the Oakland organization. Dave signed his first major league contract with the Kansas City A's in 1963, and made his major league debut with that same club in 1964. When the team moved west, Duncan went along with it, and spent 5 years in Oakland as a player. During that time, he caught some of the best pitchers of the 70's, including Jim "Catfish" Hunter, Vida Blue, Rollie Fingers and Ken Holtzman. He appeared in the American League Championship series in 1971 and 1972, and played in the World Series in 1972. After leaving the A's, Duncan finished up his career with two year stints in Cleveland and then in Baltimore.

Duncan started his coaching career in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians. In 1982, he was hired on as pitching coach of the Seattle Mariners. His staff that year led the A.L. in strikeouts with 1002, and finished second in the circuit with 39 saves and 11 shutouts. He left the Mariners in 1983 to join the White Sox. That year Sox pitchers led the majors in wins (99) and the A.L. in fewest walks (447). Duncan's staff also had the league's Cy Young winner, LaMarr Hoyt. After a disappointing '84 season, Duncan's '85 White Sox staff posted a club record of 1023 strikeouts. During his career, Dave has been associated with five Cy Young winners. Along with the A's Bob Welch and Hoyt, Duncan caught Blue and Hunter in Oakland, and Jim Palmer in Baltimore.

Dave and his wife Jeanine have two sons, Christopher and David, and they make their winter home in Tucson, Arizona.

ART KUSNYER

COACH

Arthur William Kusnyer

1991 Opening Day Age: 45

Born: Akron, Ohio, December 19, 1945

Height: 6-2 Weight: 205

Named as A's bullpen coach December 1, 1988

The 1991 season will be Kusnyer's third as the Athletics bullpen coach. Art's first season with the A's was one he will remember for a long time. In addition to coaching in the World Series for the first time, he was also a member of the winning 1989 AL All Star coaching staff. Kusnyer is no stranger to manager Tony La Russa, having been a member of La Russa's coaching staff in Chicago for over 5 years.

A catcher in his playing days, Kusnyer began his career in the Chicago White Sox organization. He played in the major leagues with the White Sox, Angels, Brewers and Royals, appearing in 139 major league games and compiling a .176 lifetime average. His major league highlight came July 15, 1973 when he caught Nolan Ryan's second career no-hitter in Detroit.

Art's coaching career began in 1979, when he closed out his playing career as a player-coach at Iowa. He was promoted to the White Sox major league staff the next season, and remained there until 1988. In 1988, Kusnyer assumed the managerial duties at Sarasota and was there when the A's and La Russa called in December, 1988.

Art and his wife, Judy, have one son (Ryan) and live in San Ramon, California.

RENE LACHEMANN

COACH

Rene George Lachemann

1991 Opening Day Age: 45

Born: Los Angeles, California, May 4, 1945

Height: 6-0 Weight: 200

Named as A's coach November 18, 1986

The 1991 season marks Lachemann's fifth with the A's, his third as the club's third base coach. He spent his first two years in Oakland as the A's first base coach. Rene has been a regular in post season play the past few seasons having coached in four of the last five World Series.

He was with Boston in 1986, in addition to the past three years with the Athletics.

Like so many other of the A's coaches, Rene was originally signed to a major league contract by the then Kansas City A's in 1964. His only full year in the majors was with K.C. in 1965 when he was a catcher. He spent parts of 1966 (K.C. A's) and 1968 (Oakland A's) in the majors before he retired as an active player in 1972. In 1973 he began managing in the A's system. He guided Burlington (A) in 1973-74, Modesto (AA) in 1975, and Chattanooga (AA) in 1976 before moving on to the A's Triple-A affiliate in San Jose in 1977. He retained that position the next year, even though San Jose was now part of the Seattle organization, and then went to Spokane from 1979-81. Rene was finally rewarded for his minor league service, being named the manager of the Seattle Mariners in 1981.

Lachemann spent 3 years with the Mariners from 1981-83, compiling a 140-180 record during his stay. He took over the helm of the Milwaukee Brewers for the 1984 season, compiling a 67-94 mark. Rene spent the 1985 and '86 seasons as the third base coach for the Boston Red Sox before moving on to the A's at the conclusion of the 1986 season.

Along with his major league experience, Rene also managed in the Latin Winter Leagues from 1976-81, earning Manager of the Year honors in 1976.

Rene spends the winters in Mesa, Arizona with his wife, Lauri, and they have two sons, Jim and Britt.

DAVE McKAY

COACH

David Lawrence McKay

1991 Opening Day Age: 41

Born: Vancouver, British Columbia, March 14, 1950

Height: 6-1

Weight: 195

Named as A's coach May 24, 1984

The 1991 season will mark Dave McKay's 12th season with the Oakland organization, the longest tenure of anyone on the staff. McKay will once again be in the first base coaches box in addition to his fitness instructor responsibilities.

ties.

McKay first came to the A's just before the 1980 season after nine years in the Minnesota and Toronto organizations. He played in 280 games for Oakland from 1980-1982 and spent the 1983 season in the minor leagues as a player-coach. He helped the A's capture the 1981 Western Division flag by hitting .288 in the latter half of the year and by belting a home run in the divisional playoff series against Kansas City. McKay's professional career had begun 10 years earlier when he signed a free agent contract with Minnesota for the 1971 season. He spent four years in the minors before breaking in with the Twins in a big way. He homered off Detroit's Vern Ruhle in his first big league at-bat on August 22, 1975 and went on to hit safely in 21 of his first 22 games. After the 1976 season, the Toronto Blue Jays selected McKay in the expansion draft and he was the starting third baseman in the Jays' first game ever. He tied a major league record in 1978 by drilling 2 doubles in the same inning of a game. He split time between Toronto and Syracuse in 1979 and opted for free agency at the end of that year. He signed with the A's as a free agent April 4, 1980.

Dave joined the A's as a coach in May of 1984 and was assigned to the bullpen to oversee pitchers warming up. He spent the balance of the '84 season and all of the 1985 campaign in the pen before taking on the first base coaching chores for 1986. After returning to the bullpen for 1987 Dave then spent 1988 in the dugout with manager La Russa before returning to the first base coaching lines in 1989.

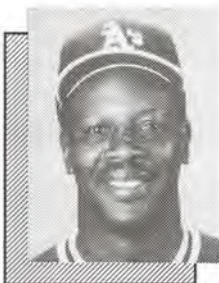

Dave earned a degree in physical education from Columbia Basin JC in Pasco, Washington and later attended Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska. Dave was born in Canada and his wife, Lene, is from Denmark. The McKay's reside in Scottsdale, Arizona with their son, Cody.

TOMMIE REYNOLDS COACH

Tommie D. Reynolds*1991 Opening Day Age: 49Born: Arizona, Louisiana, August 15, 1941Height: 6-2 Weight: 190

Named as A's bench coach, December 9, 1988

The 1991 season will be Tommie's third on Tony La Russa's staff as the bench coach, but, like so many of the other A's coaches, Tommie is no stranger to the A's or the Oakland organization.

From 1986-88 Tommie was a manager in the A's minor league system, guiding the Huntsville Stars in 1988 and the Modesto A's in the two previous seasons. Prior to that, Tommie spent five seasons as a roving minor league hitting instructor for the Chicago White Sox and two seasons as a player-coach for Spokane.

Tommie began his major league career with the Kansas City A's, and played parts of the 1964 and 65 season with K.C. After a stop in New York for the 1967 season with the Mets, Tommie found himself in Oakland for the 1969 season. That year, he hit a career-high .257 with 2 homers and 51 RBIs, both career bests. Tommie spent the 1970 and '71 seasons with the California Angels, before closing out his career with the Milwaukee Brewers.

A graduate of Lincoln High School in San Diego, Tommie and his wife, Penny, have two children, Tanya and Tommie Jr. The Reynolds spend the winter in Lemon Grove, California.

TROY AFENIR

Michael Troy Afenir

1991 Opening Day Age: 27

Born: Escondido, California, September 21, 1963

Bats: Right

Throws: Right

Height: 6-4

Weight: 195

Major League Service: 65 days

Obtained: Acquired from the Houston Astros in exchange for catcher Matt Sinatro, April 6, 1989

Contract Status: First year of a one-year contract through 1991.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- After spending spring training with the major league club Troy opened up the year in Tacoma...but when Terry Steinbach was injured in early July Afenir packed his bags and headed to Cleveland on July 5th to join the A's...it was his first taste of major league baseball in nearly three years...since September, 1987 when he made his major league debut with Houston...Troy spent 3 weeks with the A's...made 9 appearances...2 starts...picked up his first American League hit July 22nd vs. Toronto's Jimmy Key...returned to Tacoma on July 28th and finished up the Pacific Coast League season with the Tigers...wound up hitting .249 with a club high 15 homers plus 47 RBI's in 88 games...third consecutive minor league season Afenir reached double figures in homers...returned to Oakland September 14th...but made just 5 appearances during the final month of the A's season due to a sore left knee...eventually had cartilage removed arthroscopically by A's team orthopedist, Dr. Rick Bost, on October 22nd.

CAREER: 1983--drafted by Houston in the first round, secondary phase, January, 1983 free agent draft...reported to Auburn where he appeared in just 7 games hitting .115...moved to Sarasota for the summer and he showed great promise...hit .292 in 27 games with 5 homers and 24 RBIs. 1984--spent the entire season in the Southern Atlantic League at Asheville...hit just .193 in 115 games but did belt 16 homers with 69 RBIs. 1985--moved to Osceola of the Florida State League...jumped his average up to .248 in 99 games...named the Astros's Most Improved Player at the 1985 Winter Instructional League in Phoenix. 1986--jumped to Double-A Columbus and put together another good power season...cracked 14 homers and added 15 doubles with 45 RBIs in 91 games...appeared in two games at first base, a first for Troy. 1987--big season for Troy...opened the year back in Osceola but finished up in Houston playing in 10 games for the Astros...after tearing up the Florida State League with 14 homers and 68 RBIs in 79 games, Troy moved back up to Columbus...appeared in 31 games at Double-A before moving up to Houston on 9/14...major league debut was that night in pinch-hitter role at Los Angeles...first hit came 9/23 in Atlanta, a single off Zane Smith...made 5 starts behind the plate...hit safely in his last 4 games. 1988--spent the entire year at Columbus where he once again put together an excellent power season...had 42 extra-base hits with 16 homers...added 66 RBIs...in addition to his catching and first base duties, also played 68 games in the outfield. 1989--acquired from Houston just prior to the start of the season...injuries slowed him early but finished strong to post a solid season at Huntsville...had two different stints on the disabled list with a sore right shoulder and a pulled left hamstring but in his last 40 games he belted 10 doubles, 9 homers and knocked in 32 runs.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Graduated from Escondido High School (California) in June, 1981...first drafted by the Cubs in the first round of the January, 1982 free agent draft...did not sign and continued to attend Palomar Junior College...was drafted again, this time by Baltimore in the second round (secondary phase) June, 1982...again spurned the professional offer and returned to Palomar...but when Astros took him in the first round (secondary phase) of the January, 1983 draft he signed...Troy spends the winter months in San Diego with his wife Kimberly, and daughter Ashtynn.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- Was on the A's opening day roster but never did find his stride offensively and was up and down twice between Oakland and Tacoma, the A's Triple-A club...while up with the A's was used in a variety of roles...from a starting infielder and outfielder to a pinch runner...started games at second base, third base, right and left field...and even made an appearance in center field...appeared in 3 games of the ALCS without an at-bat...did score one run...and then was 0 for 1 in a World Series pinch-hitting appearance...during the season was 2 for his first 6 but then went 1 for 31 before being assigned to Tacoma May 30th...returned to the A's 2 weeks later on June 13th when Canseco went on the DL but it was just 10 days later, June 23rd, that Canseco returned to the lineup and Lance to Triple-A...came back July 16th when Randolph was injured...Blankenship then remained with the Athletics the remainder of the season...at Tacoma played in 24 games...hit .258 with 1 homer and 9 RBI's...walked 14 times and stole 7 bases in 10 attempts...for the A's, had his best streak of the season from mid-July until early September...hit at a .255 clip (14 for 45) plus added 6 walks...went 3 for 22 to open September but then finished the year 4 for his last 11 to run his average up to .191...the highest it had been since it was at .200 on April 20th.

CAREER: 1986--after being a second round choice of the Boston Red Sox in the 1985 June draft, signed with A's after being chosen in 10th round of 1986 June draft...reported to Medford of the Northwest League, where he proceeded to hit .404 in 14 games...had 3 doubles, 2 homers and 17 RBIs...also stole 10 bases...promoted to Modesto of the California League...played in 55 games there, hitting .292...had 50 hits and 47 runs scored in the 55 games...also had 5 doubles, 3 triples and 6 homers. 1987--actually spent 2 days with the A's in July when injuries cut into Oakland's outfield depth...did not see any game action...was sent back to Huntsville (AA) to finish out the minor league season...opened the year with Modesto (A) and after hitting .274 in 22 games was moved up to Huntsville in May...at Huntsville had an immediate impact...hit .344 in first 11 games with 3 homers and 10 RBIs. 1988--first full season at Triple-A Tacoma...moved to Oakland for September...was chosen to play in the inaugural Triple-A All-Star game in Buffalo...led the Tigers in walks (96), runs (84) and steals (40)...appeared in 10 games for the A's in September, mostly as a pinch runner and defensive replacement...had 3 at-bats without a hit. 1989--bounced back and forth between the major league club and Tacoma for much of the season but wound up on the A's 24-man playoff roster...picked up his first major league hit 4/19 at Seattle off Mark Langston...belted first major league homer 2 days later in Oakland off the Angels' Chuck Finley...appeared in 25 games at Tacoma with a .296 average...and 58 games with the A's...made one appearance in the ALCS vs. Toronto without an at-bat and then went 1 for 2 in the Series vs. San Francisco.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Starred in football and baseball at Ygnacio Valley HS in Concord, California, graduating in 1982...attended the University of California for 4 years...first person ever to be named to the All-Pacific 10 Conference baseball team four consecutive years...was also an All-American at Cal in his junior and senior seasons...Lance and his wife, Shannon, who were married last November 10th, make their home in San Ramon, California.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS — For the second consecutive season Todd was a valuable member of the A's bullpen...used the majority of the season in long relief but did save 3 games and started twice...his start vs. Minnesota on September 13th a memorable one because it was the first game started in 1990 by someone other than the original starting five the A's opened the season with...for the third consecutive season did not work in the ALCS...but did pitch in the World Series...pitched in Games #1 and #3 of the Series...allowed 5 hits and 3 earned runs in 1.2 innings...after the shortened spring it took Todd 4 appearances to get rolling...in his first four outings allowed 7 hits and 4 earned runs over 3.2 Innings...but following his fourth game April 19th did not allow another run until June 8th...11 appearances covering 16.1 innings to lower his ERA from 9.84 to 1.80 on June 7th...first save of the season was for Moore on May 7th at New York...May 30th worked 3.1 scoreless innings to pick up first win of the year at home vs. Toronto...second win 2 weeks later vs. Texas at home June 13th...first two losses of the season came within 5 days...June 27th and July 1st...allowed game-winning homer to Heath vs. Detroit on June 27th...then dropped a 4-3 decision at Toronto July 1st...at the All-Star break was 2-2 with the 1 save...an ERA of 2.53 in 24 games...second save of the year July 25th vs. California...Todd went 3.1 innings to save a win for Young...ran into a bad streak in his 7 outings following that save...allowed 6 earned runs in 11.2 innings to run his ERA back over 3.00 for the first time since mid-May...third loss of year came during the streak at California 8/4...got himself back on track and his ERA under 3.00 with his longest relief stint of the season on September 1st vs. Texas...worked 6.2 shutout relief innings...allowed just 2 hits...then recorded his third and final save of the year September 7th at New York...worked 4.0 scoreless innings vs. the Yankees to save another win for Curt Young...for September worked in 7 games, which included his two starts...vs. the Twins on the 13th, and in Texas on the 29th...in the start vs. Minnesota picked up no decision despite allowing just 1 run and 3 hits over 7.0 innings...his final appearance of the season was the start in Texas on the 29th...picked up the win allowing 2 earned runs in 5.2 innings...for September allowed just 6 earned runs over 28.0 innings (1.93 ERA)...Todd continued his career pattern of strong pitching at the Coliseum...in 1990 was 2-1 at home with a 2.58 ERA and 2 of his 3 saves...lifetime is now 11-3 in 58 home appearances, with an ERA at the Coliseum of 2.28 (154.0 IP, 39 ER).

CAREER: 1984--was the A's 7th round selection in the June, 1984 free agent draft...spent the year with Medford of the Northwest League and Madison of the Midwest League...went 3-0 with a 0.50 ERA with Medford and 3-2 with a 2.57 ERA in Madison. 1985--started the year with Madison, going 8-8 with a 3.66 ERA...started 19 of the 20 games he appeared in...moved up to Huntsville and started 4 games...went 3-1 with a 1.19 ERA. 1986--started the season with Double-A Huntsville...got off to a hot start in April, going 2-1 in 4 starts with a 2.36 ERA...slumped somewhat in May, going 1-1 with a 5.08 ERA...continued to pitch well in June, despite a 3-3 record that month...won his first 3 starts that month, averaging 8 innings per outing...his last 3 starts in June resulted in losses, but one of the losses was a nine-inning effort when he surrendered only 6 hits...was moved up to Tacoma on July 26th, leaving Huntsville with a 7-7 record and a 3.75 ERA...first action with the Tigers was on July 29th against Edmonton...he pitched in relief in that game, going 1.1 innings and giving up 1 run on 3 hits...made 11 appearances for Tacoma, all in relief, and fared quite well...he had a 0-1 record with a 2.16 ERA in 16.2 innings. 1987--opened the year at Huntsville (AA)...was 3-4 with the Stars in 34 relief appearances...added 7 saves...excellent strikeout to walk ratio...walked just 17 while striking out 54 in 63.2 innings...moved up to Tacoma on July 10th...was used majority of the time as a setup man at Tacoma...made 21 relief appearances for the Tigers...finished 2-2 with no saves...struck out 30 in 27.2 innings while walking 16...combined at Huntsville and Tacoma to strike out 84 in 91.1 innings...walked just 33. 1988--recalled from Tacoma on May 31st and made his ML debut that night vs. New York...went right back to Tacoma the next day but returned to stay on June 18th...from that date on was used in long relief and as the 5th starter...first ML win was in relief at Toronto July 3rd...first ML save came at Milwaukee September 28th...did not appear in the ALCS vs. Boston...one World Series appearance was in the 9th inning of the 5th and final game, retiring the only hitter he faced. 1989--first full major league season for Todd...finished the year with 83.1 relief innings to top the A's pen...made two starts during the season and the first one, in New York, was one to remember...retired 19 of the 20 hitters he faced at Yankee Stadium May 26th...wound up with a career high total of 8 saves.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Graduated from Sante Fe High School (California) in 1981...attended Oral Roberts University for three years...is an avid fisherman...Todd and wife Andrea reside in Huntsville, Alabama with their daughter, Kelsey, in the off-season.

JOSE CANSECO

OF

Jose Canseco

1991 Opening Day Age: 26

Born: Havana, Cuba, July 2, 1964

Bats: Right

Throws: Right

Height: 6-4

Weight: 240

Major League Service: 5 years, 35 days

Obtained: Oakland's 15th round selection in the June, 1982 free agent draft, regular phase.

Contract Status: First year of a five-year contract through 1995.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- Despite a back problem (diagnosed as a slightly protruding disc in his lower back) that caused Jose to miss 31 games on the season he still produced a strong season...finished second on the club to McGwire with 37 homers and 101 RBI's...his homer total the third best in the league behind Fielder and McGwire...37 homers also the second best total of his career...exceeded only by the 42 he hit during his 1988 MVP season...reached 100 RBI's for the fourth time in his career...he is the only member of the Oakland A's to top 100 RBI's four times...Jose going over the 100 figure on the next to the last day of the season...his final total of 101 the fourth best in the loop...his final slugging percentage of .543 was third best, trailing Fielder and another teammate, Rickey Henderson...he also topped A's outfielders with 7 assists from his position in rightfield...finished up just 3 for 23 in post season play with 1 homer and 3 RBI's...was 2 for 11 in the ALCS starting all 4 games...and then was 1 for 12 (a homer in Game #2 in Cincinnati) in the Series...did not start Game #4 in Oakland when his back problems kicked up...for the season got off to a great start...was hitting .406 after 9 games with 2 homers and 6 RBI's...put together a brilliant May...had the first of his seven 1990 2 homer games May 7th in the Coliseum vs. New York...in a 5 game stretch May 12-16th put on an offensive show...went 10 for 21 with 5 homers and 7 RBI's...then in a 6 game span from May 21 to the 26th was 13 for 24 with 5 homers and 16 RBI's...included in that barrage his first career regular season grand slam...at Toronto May 22nd...a blast that carried onto the glass of the restaurant in centerfield...some 500 feet away...for the month of May hit .353 with 13 homers and 35 RBI's in 27 games...back problems forced Jose on the disabled list June 8th...he spent several days in traction and after 15 days returned to the lineup June 23rd vs. Chicago...in his first at-bat the White Sox' Jack McDowell hit Jose on the wrist and that was another injury that was slow to heal...after his red hot May was 5 for 31 in June with 2 homers and 3 RBI's...but began to find his stroke in July...in his final 3 games before the All-Star break was 5 for 13 with 2 homers and 4 RBI's...the last homer was another titantic shot...this one at Cleveland Stadium July 8th...it almost carried into the permanent bleachers in left-center field...named on more All-Star ballots than any player in baseball Jose made his third All-Star appearance, second start, at the game in Chicago's Wrigley Field...returned after the break to post big numbers again...in his first 24 games after the break hit .344 (31 for 90) with 12 homers and 28 RBI's...capped the streak with a 2 homer, 5 RBI night in Anaheim August 2nd...but following that game in Anaheim Jose's offense slowed...would hit just 3 more homers the rest of 1990...and knock in 19 runs in 45 games...prior to the addition of Harold Baines on August 29th Jose served as the A's DH in 41 games...played the DH role just twice after the trade for Baines...still Jose had more at-bats in the DH positoin (159) than anyone else on the club...wound up hitting .233 as the DH with 6 homers and 25 RBI's...hit 19 homers on the road and 18 at home.

CAREER: 1982--drafted by the A's in the 15th round...played with both Miami (Florida State League) and Idaho Falls (Pioneer League). 1983--split the season between Madison and Medford, both A-Level...despite leading the Northwest League in strikeouts with 78 at Medford, Jose was voted Best Hitting Prospect and Hitter With the Best Power in a league poll...was the All-Star designated hitter...played for the A's Arizona Instructional League Team and led the league in RBIs (26) and tied for the lead in homers (4). 1984--Canseco led Modesto (A) with 15 homers and 73 RBIs...also drove home 13 game-winners...2nd on the team with 21 doubles...added 7 sacrifice flies and 74 walks...his long 2-run homer was the difference in Modesto's deciding divisional playoff game against Redwood as Modesto went on to take the league title...struck out 127 times in 116 games...had 17 assists and started 8 double plays from his outfield position. 1985--started the season in Double-A Huntsville, before being promoted to Triple-A Tacoma and finally to Oakland...in 58 games with the Stars, hit .318 with 25

Dennis Lee Eckersley*1991 Opening Day Age: 36Born: Oakland, California, October 3, 1954Bats: Right Throws: RightHeight: 6-2 Weight: 195Major League Service: 16 yearsObtained: Acquired from the Chicago Cubs with infielder Dan Rohn in exchange for outfielder Dave Wilder, infielder Brian Guinn and pitcher Mark Leonette, April 3, 1987.Contract Status: Second year of a three-year contract extension through the 1992 season.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- In his third year of pitching strictly in relief the "Eck" put together another amazing season...it may have been his best season yet in the "stopper" role...48 saves the second best season save total in major league history...Thigpen's 57 last year the record...Dennis finished fifth in the 1990 AL Cy Young balloting and sixth in the AL MVP voting...including one first place MVP vote...since taking over as the A's closer in 1988 has saved 126 games in 143 opportunities (88%) overall now has 142 saves in an A's uniform...an Athletics career record...with a save over the Twins on September 15th of last year Eckersley surpassed Rollie Fingers' old standard of 137...did not walk a hitter until June 12th...walked the Rangers' Julio Franco on the 12th to snap a string of 185 consecutive hitters without a walk...a span over two seasons that reached 52.0 innings...for the year walked just 4 in 73.1 innings and now for the past two seasons has walked 7 (1 intentional) in 131.0 innings...or 1 every 18.0 innings...had more saves than hits and walks combined (45 hits and walks, 48 saves)...for the year converted 96% of his save opportunities (48 saves in 50 opportunities) the best ratio of his relief career...saved his first 20 opportunities before his first walk led to a blown save vs. Texas June 12th...then ripped off 19 more saves before his second blown opportunity August 30th when Bo Jackson homered to tie the game in the 8th...ended the season with a streak of 9 consecutive converted opportunities...had 48 saves despite just 8 opportunities after September 1st...Eck became only the third man in the history of the game to have two seasons of 40 or more saves, joining Dan Quisenberry and Jeff Reardon...he recorded his 100th career save April 15th in Seattle to become only the 6th pitcher to have at least 100 saves and 100 victories...(since 1969)...Eckersley has 169 wins...made his fourth All-Star appearance...and recorded the save in the American League's 2-0 win at Wrigley Field July 10th...his second All-Star save...started the 1982 game at Montreal...consistent all year, he had 7 saves in April, 8 in May, 9 in June, 8 in July, 8 in August and 8 in September...saved 19 of Welch's 27 victories...and finished the game at Baltimore August 17th in which Welch recorded his 20th victory.

CAREER: 1972--3rd round selection of the Cleveland Indians in the 1972 June draft...played with Reno in the California League that year, going 5-5. 1973--spent second consecutive season with Reno...went 12-8 with a 3.65 ERA and struck out 218 batters in 202 innings. 1974--promoted to AA San Antonio of the Texas League and went 14-3...led the league in strikeouts with 163 in 167 innings...named Texas League right-handed Pitcher of the Year...also tied for the league lead with 5 shutouts. 1975--promoted to Cleveland and went 13-7 with a 2.60 ERA...named AL Rookie Pitcher of the Year by The Sporting News...made his major league debut against the A's and won 2-0 on May 25...did not allow an earned run in his first 28.2 innings, a major league rookie record...finished 3rd in the league in ERA...also had his first 2 career saves. 1976--won 13 games for the second straight season in Cleveland...finished 13-12 overall, with a 3.44 ERA...struck out 200 batters in 199 innings to become only the 8th pitcher in ML history (since 1900) to fan 200 in a season before the age of 22. 1977--went 14-13 in his final year in Cleveland...threw a 1-0 no-hitter against California on May 30, striking out 12...that was part of a 22.1 hitless-inning string, the 2nd longest in baseball history (Cy Young hurled 25.1 hitless innings in 1904)...had 191 strikeouts and only 53 walks in 247.0 innings...named to the AL All-Star team for the first time...also had a 1-hitter against Milwaukee in August. 1978--traded to Boston prior to the 1978 season, and became first Red Sox hurler in 7 years to win 20 games...went 20-8 with a 2.99 ERA...threw a career high 268.0 innings, striking out 162 and walking 71...was 11-1 at Fenway Park that year. 1979--threw 17 complete games, second most in the American League...led the BoSox staff with 17 wins, a mark which tied him for tops in the league in wins by a righthander...second consecutive year with a 2.99 ERA. 1980--suffered his first sub-.500 season as a pro...went 12-14 with a 4.28 ERA...tossed a 1-hitter vs. Toronto on 9/28. 1981--failed to win at least 10 games for the first time in his major league career...went 9-8 with a 4.27 ERA...appeared in just 23 games, pitching in just 154.0 innings. 1982--had 11 complete games and went 13-13 for the Red Sox...won 100th career game on 4/21 vs. Baltimore...was the starting pitcher and loser in the All-Star Game in Montreal...bounced back from 2 sub-200 inning years to pitch 224.1 innings. 1983--suffered through his worst season as a pro...went 9-13 with a 5.61 ERA...in 176.1 innings pitched, recorded a career-low 77 strikeouts...had just 2 complete games. 1984--split the season between the Red Sox and the Chicago Cubs...was traded to the Cubs for Bill Buckner on 5/25...prior to the trade, was 4-4 with a 5.01 ERA in 9 games...after the trade, won just 1 of his first 6 NL decisions...rebounded during the second half and went 8-3 with a 2.06 ERA after July 14...finished the year 10-8 with a 3.03 ERA for the Cubs. 1985--won 4 straight starts between 4/16 and 5/1...threw 4 complete games in the process, becoming the first Cub to hurl 4 straight CGs since Rick Reuschel in 1977...was named NL Pitcher of the Week after tossing back-to-back shutouts on 4/16 and 4/21...had a string of 22.1 shutout innings...came down with tendinitis of the right shoulder and pitched just 4 times in July and August combined...struck out 117 batters and walked just 19 in 169.1 innings...finished the year 11-7 with a 3.08 ERA. 1986--led the Cubs with 137 strikeouts and 201 innings pitched, the sixth time in his career that he pitched at least 200 innings...recorded the 150th win of his career on 7/30 at New York...threw 100th CG of his career on 7/8 at San Francisco...made his first relief appearance after 301 starts on 6/24...walked an average of 1 in 21 batters and walked 1 or less in 20 of his starts...finished the year 6-11

Michael Anthony Gallego

1991 Opening Day Age: 30

Born: Whittier, California, October 31, 1960

Bats: Right Throws: Right

Height: 5-8 Weight: 160

Major League Service: 5 years, 40 days

Obtained: Oakland's 2nd round selection in the June, 1981 free agent draft, regular phase.

Contract Status: Second year of a two-year contract through 1991.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- Put together another season of defensive highlights and clutch hitting for the A's...for the first time in his career was the A's opening night second baseman but got off to a slow start with the bat...hit .091 for April (4 for 44)...began to find his stroke in May...was 9 for his first 27 in May but found himself out of a starting job on May 12th when the A's acquired Willie Randolph from the Dodgers...still found plenty of playing time by filling in at 3 different infield positions...for the year played 83 games at second base, 38 at shortstop and 27 at third base...played in a career high 140 games with career highs in at-bats, (389) and RBI's (34)...tied his career best in homers (3)...led the club with 17 sacrifice hits...the best total by an Oakland A in 10 seasons...since Dwayne Murphy had an Oakland record 22 in 1980...Mike made his first career error at third base on May 19th in Milwaukee...had played 57 consecutive games at third without an error before that miscue...only Bobby Wine (67) has played more games at third without an error...Gallego saw another defensive streak end June 2nd in Kansas City when he made his first career error on artificial turf...had played 70 games on turf without an error before making 2 in the one game at Kansas City...hit .281 for the month of May to raise his average from .091 to .198 by the first of June...brilliant defensive play in Chicago June 15th preserved the A's 5-4 win over the White Sox in Comiskey Park...threw out Lance Johnson from his back after a diving stop...reached the break hitting .206...with second half injuries to Randolph and Weiss, Gallego once again played a very valuable role in the A's pennant drive...played in 71 of the A's 80 games after the break...playing second when Randolph went down in mid-July...hit .258 during Randolph's absence...including a 4 game series vs. the Angels July 23-26th where Mike picked up 7 hits in 14 at-bats with 2 doubles, a homer and 2 RBI's...average reached a season high .222 on July 25th...Randolph returned August 3rd but when Weiss went down August 20th Gags jumped in and played superb shortstop for 17 consecutive appearances...made 2 errors in his first 4 games at short but once he settled in played errorless baseball his final 13 games at the position...during the A's final trip of the year made his first career appearance in the outfield...as a rightfield defensive replacement in Kansas City September 24th...handled one chance, a flyball, perfectly.

CAREER: 1981--A's 2nd round selection in the June free agent draft, regular phase...hit .272 in 60 games for Modesto in the California League. 1982--played 54 games for West Haven (Eastern League) and 44 games for Tacoma (Pacific Coast League)...batted .180 in West Haven and .221 for Tacoma. 1983--after 2 games with Tacoma, Mike was sent to Albany of the Eastern League...in 90 games in Albany, he hit .223. 1984--spent the whole season in Tacoma, hitting .243 in 101 games. 1985--made Oakland opening day roster with a fine spring training, but was optioned to Modesto on April 24th...played just 6 games there before returning to the A's for the remainder of the season on May 3rd...picked up his first major league hit, a single, off Detroit's Bill Scherrer August 22nd in Oakland...hit first major league homer September 22nd in Chicago off Joel Davis...batted .208 for the year in 77 at-bats. 1986--Mike was a valuable player for the Tacoma Tigers during the 1986 season...in 132 games (3rd most on the team), Mike hit .275 with 122 hits and 46 RBIs...was called up to Oakland on September 2nd, shortly after Tony Phillips was injured...in 20 games with the A's, Mike hit .270 (10 for 37) with 4 RBIs...was almost flawless in the field, committing just 1 error in 76 chances. 1987--opened the year on the disabled list with a pulled groin muscle suffered in spring training...after 10 games at Tacoma on a rehabilitation assignment returned to Oakland April 20th...a collision with Stan Javier in Texas June 12th caused Gallego to miss 6 more weeks of the season...when healthy, was the A's utility infielder, filling in at shortstop, third and second base...belted second career homer May 13th off Brewers' Ted Higuera, in the midst of a 6-for-12 hot streak...picked on another lefthander, the Twins' Frank Viola, for his third career homer August 6th at Minnesota...wound up hitting .300 vs. lefthanders (18 for 60). 1988--first full ML season, setting career highs in every offensive category that he eventually exceeded in 1989...appeared in all four ALCS games vs. Boston...caught the final out in Game 4 to complete the A's sweep into the Series...appeared in one Series game without an at-bat. 1989--expected to split time with Tony Phillips at second base Gallego was thrust into a starting role at shortstop when Weiss went down with an injury in mid-May...started 59 of the 65 games Weiss missed...was one of the main reasons why the A's were able to go 36-29 in Weiss' absence...in addition to his excellent defense also fashioned his best year offensively...had career highs in average (.252) runs (45) and doubles (14)...hit .277 over the final 2 months of the season (26 for 94)...started 4 of the 5 games in the ALCS vs. Toronto...2 at second and 2 at shortstop...hit .273 with an RBI...contributed a key suicide squeeze bunt in the title-clinching Game #5 at Toronto, scoring McGwire with the A's fourth and final run in the 4-3 victory...did not make a start in the Series vs. San Francisco...did make one pinch-hitting appearance and two late inning defensive appearances.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Mike graduated from St. Paul High (Sante Fe Springs, California) in 1978...attended UCLA for three years, majoring in Sociology prior to being drafted by the A's...at UCLA Mike's teammates included Matt Young, Tim Leary, and Don Slaught...Gallego and his wife Caryn reside in Yorba Linda, California and, in addition to their twin sons, Nicholas and Joseph, they have a new daughter, Allison, born this past December.

Scott Matthew Hemond*1991 Opening Day Age: 25Born: Taunton, Massachusetts, November 18, 1965Bats: RightThrows: RightHeight: 6-0Weight: 205Major League Service: 34 daysObtained: Oakland's 1st round selection (12th pick overall) in the June, 1986 free-agent draft.Contract Status: First year of a one-year contract through 1991.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- Spent the majority of the season in Tacoma but did have an 11 day "cup of coffee" with the A's in July when injuries cut into the A's depth...made his second position switch since being drafted as a catcher...after playing third base for two years at Double-A was moved to second base at Tacoma...the early part of Scott's season was disrupted when he fractured the hook of the hamate bone in his left hand on May 17th...the same injury that Jose Canseco suffered in 1989...Hemond spent seven weeks on the disabled list before returning to action July 6th...he eventually needed surgery in mid-September to correct the fracture but played the remainder of the year with the injury...after a hot streak where he went 8 for 22 with 6 RBI's in 6 games Hemond was called to Oakland July 18th when Willie Randolph was injured...appeared in 7 games, made 3 starts all at third base...also appeared once at second base...went 0 for his first 10 before picking up his first major league hit July 24th off the Angels' Jim Abbott...recorded one more hit before returning to Tacoma July 27th...finished up 2 for 13 with the A's...played the rest of the year for Tacoma and wound up hitting .243 in 72 games...played 63 games at second base...also played third base, shortstop and caught 8 games...missed the PCL playoffs when he went on the disabled list in early September due to his hand problem.

CAREER: 1986--after being the A's first round selection in the June free agent draft, began his pro career at Single-A Madison of the Midwest League...wasted no time showing why he was the A's top pick...batted .306 in 22 games for the Muskies...had 13 RBIs and scored 9 runs himself. 1987--spent some time in the A's major league camp...split the year between Madison and Huntsville...got off to a hot start at Madison, hitting .333 in his first 10 games, with 4 homers and 17 RBIs...in 90 games, finished at .289 with 8 homers and 52 RBIs...also added 27 steals...named the 9th best prospect in the Midwest League, as chosen by Baseball America...promoted to Huntsville on July 15...struggled at the plate, hitting .182 in 33 games. 1988--first full year at Double-A Huntsville...made the switch from catcher to third base and was fine defensively but had a tough time with his offense...his 22 doubles did lead the club and his 9 homers ranked second on the Stars...added a then career-high 29 steals. 1989--second consecutive full season at Double-A Huntsville but by September had earned his first taste of major league baseball...played in 4 September games for the A's...all in pinch-running roles...scored twice...at Huntsville improved all his offensive numbers from the previous year...bumped his average up 45 points, finished second in the league with 89 runs scored and tied for fourth with 45 steals...for the second consecutive season spent most of his time at third base (106 games) but did put some time in at catcher (32 games).

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Graduated from Dunedin (FL) H.S. in 1983...attended University of South Florida in Tampa for 3 years...the same school that A's manager Tony La Russa received his his undergraduate degree from...Scott is single and still resides in Dunedin, Florida.

DID YOU KNOW...

On May 28, 1980, two Oakland players stole home in the same inning. In the first inning of a game against Kansas City at the Coliseum, first Dwayne Murphy and then Wayne Gross turned the trick.

David Lee Henderson*1991 Opening Day Age: 32Born: Dos Palos, California, July 21, 1958Bats: Right Throws: RightHeight: 6-2 Weight: 220Major League Service: 9 years, 93 daysObtained: Signed as a free agent by the A's, December 21, 1987.Contract Status: First year of a three-year contract (signed December 11, 1990) through 1993.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS — Despite a knee injury that cost Dave 27 games in late August and early September the veteran centerfielder once again put up solid numbers for the Athletics...has now played in four of the last five World Series...uncharacteristically had a poor post-season in 1990...played in 6 of the A's 8 post-season games and was 4 for 19 (.211) with 1 extra-base hit and 1 RBI...is still a lifetime .298 hitter (36 for 121) in the post-season and is one of only 20 players with 7 or more post-season homers...for the season finished with 20 homers, the second best total of his career and fourth best on the club...his final .271 average 21 points above his final figure of 1989...and now over his 3 years with the A's has averaged .274 with 20 homers and 79 RBI's...his defense again a key...Cleveland challenged his arm twice in one inning on July 7th and Hendu threw out 2 at the plate for 2 of his 5 assists on the season...opened his third season in Oakland with an opening night homer plus 3 RBI's in the A's win over Minnesota April 9th...was 8 for his first 19 with 2 homers and 5 RBI's in 5 games...cooled off the remainder of April and finished the month at .200 and remained in the low .200's until mid-May when a hot streak propelled him up past the .260 level....Hendu went 7 for 9 with 2 homers and 6 RBI's in a 2 game set vs. Milwaukee at the Coliseum May 23-24th...the 2 homers coming in one game, May 23rd...the third multi-homer game of his career and first in four seasons...Dave turned the power on in June...belting 8 homers in the month to go along with 21 RBI's in 26 games....on June 15th Tony La Russa's father suggested to Tony that he bat Henderson in the number 2 position of the order...Henderson responded the first night with 3 hits, including a homer and key 2 RBI double that led to an A's win...Dave stayed in the number 2 spot for 18 of the next 20 games and for the year hit .294 from the number two slot...it was from the number 2 spot in the order that Dave's flair for the dramatic surfaced again...a 2-run homer off Chicago's Thigpen with 2 out in the 9th inning tied the A's with the White Sox 2-2 on June 24th...the Athletics wound up losing the game but for the season the A's were 15-4 in games Dave homered in...Henderson reached the break at an even .250 with 14 homers and 41 RBI's in 76 games...after two days off he returned red hot and by July 18th had pushed his average up to .272...Henderson 14 for his first 28 (.500) after the break...bothered by the Metrodome lighting, Hendu played 3 games in rightfield during an A's trip to Minneapolis July 27-29th...it was his first right field appearance in an A's uniform...his right knee was injured at Chicago August 20th...prior to the injury Henderson was 19 for 67 (.323) with 7 extra-base hits and 11 RBI's in 17 games...but when Carlton Fisk lofted a pop fly single to center Henderson's season nearly ended...while attempting a sliding catch Dave's knee buckled and he tore cartilage in his right knee...4 days later A's team physician, Dr. Rick Bost, performed arthroscopic surgery on the knee and Henderson went on the disabled list...but less than a month after the surgery (28 days) Dave was back in the batters box at the Coliseum...he picked up a walk in a pinch-hitting appearance September 21st at the Coliseum vs. Detroit...started slowly after he returned to action...was 1 for his first 16 but once October appeared the real Dave showed up...was 5 for 7 in his last 2 games of the season, with a homer and 3 RBI's...altogether after the surgery he appeared in 12 games, made 6 starts and hit .261 with a homer and 4 RBI's...was granted "new look" free agency December 7th as part of the collusion settlement but just four days later, on December 11th, decided to remain in Oakland by agreeing to a new three-year contract.

CAREER: 1977--selected in the 1st round of the June free agent draft by the Seattle Mariners...in his first pro season, was named to Northwest League and Topps Class A/Rookie All-Star teams...hit .315 that year and tied for league lead in homers (16). 1978--was bothered most of the season with an achilles problem at Stockton...still played 117 games for the Ports, hitting .232. 1979--played at San Jose in 1979 and was named to the California League All-Star team...hit .300 that season with 27 homers and 99 RBIs. 1980--hit .279 with 7 homers and 50 RBIs in 109 games at Spokane despite undergoing arthroscopic surgery to repair cartilage in his left knee on 6/27. 1981--was the opening night center fielder for Seattle...hit his first ML homer on 4/17 vs. the A's...was up and down between Spokane and Seattle. 1982--hit .253 with 14 homers in his first full season in the majors...was on DL 5/5-18 with strained rib muscles in left side...hit 9 homers in first half. 1983--had a then-career high 17 HRs in 1983...hit 2 HRs 8/2 vs Oakland, including one inside-the-park...hit 2nd inside-the-park HR 9/5 vs. KC. 1984--hit .353 in the second half despite being on the DL August 10-29 with a pulled left hamstring...came off the DL and hit in 8 straight games...hit consecutive game-winning homers July 28 and July 29 vs. the A's...overall, he hit .280. 1985--played in a career high 139 games and hit .241...had a 14-game hitting streak 4/29 to 5/19...had back-to-back 3-hit games on April 29 and 30 vs. Milwaukee. 1986--traded along with Spike Owen to the Boston Red Sox on August 19...was hitting .276 with 14 homers and 44 RBIs in 103 games before the trade...American League Player of the Week for June 9-15, when he was 11-29 with 2 homers and 10 RBIs...had a 12-game hitting streak 6/7-21...for the Red Sox, hit .196 in 36 games...overall in 112 games in the outfield made just 5 errors in 236 chances (.980)...made just 1 error in 32 games for the Red Sox...was one of 9 AL outfielders to reach double figures in assists...had memorable League Championship Series...with Red Sox trailing 5-4 in Game 5, down 3 games to 1 with 2 outs and 2 strikes in the 9th inning, he hit a 2-run HR, then had GWRBI on sacrifice fly in 11th...hit .400 in the World Series, hitting 2 homers...had arthroscopic knee surgery on his right knee on January 27 to repair cartilage damage. 1987--opening day center fielder for Boston in 1987...had 71 at-bats in April but only 113 over the next four months in Boston prior to being traded to San Francisco for a player to be named later (Randy Kutcher) September 1st...only GWRBI of season was July 18th in Fenway vs. A's a 2-run homer off Gene Nelson in the bottom of the 10th inning...moved to Giants for the stretch drive...appeared in 15 games for San Francisco and made 5 starts, all in center field. 1988--signed by the A's as a free agent in December, 1987...went on to have a career season...earned UPI Comeback Player of the Year honors...had career highs in average (.304), runs (100), hits (154), total bases (266), doubles (38), homers (24) and RBIs (94)...A's were 23-1 in games Dave homered...hit .375 in the ALCS vs. Boston, recording at least one hit in all four games...then hit .300 in the Series vs. Los Angeles. 1989--put together another excellent season for the A's and then, as usual, was superb in the post-season...during the season 7 of his 15 homers put the A's in front...went without a homer from 5/15 to 7/14...hit .239 prior to the All-Star break but then hit .265 after to kick his average up to the final .250 mark...when September rolled around Dave began his usual move to center stage...with runners in scoring position during September hit .433 (13 for 30)...had his biggest RBI month with 18 September RBI's to finish with the second best total of his career (80)...hit .281 combined in both the ALCS and Series with 5 doubles, 3 homers and 5 RBI's in 9 games...added 6 walks...saved his best for Game #3 of the Fall Classic at San Francisco...cracked a double and 2 homers to drive in 4 runs.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Dave and wife Loni have two children, Chase and Trent, and they reside in Bellevue, Washington during the winter...starred at Dos Palos (CA) High School graduating in 1977...Seattle's 1st round selection in 1977 (26th player selected) and Dave turned down a football scholarship to Fresno State to sign with the M's...his uncle, Joe Henderson, pitched for White Sox in 1974 and Reds in 1976 and '77.

Rickey Lee Henderson

1991 Opening Day Age: 32

Born: Chicago, Illinois, December 25, 1958

Bats: Right

Throws: Left

Height: 5-10

Weight: 190

Major League Service: 11 years, 101 days

Obtained: Reacquired from the New York Yankees in exchange for pitchers Greg Cadaret and Eric Plunk, plus outfielder Luis Polonia, June 20, 1989.

Contract Status: Second year of a four-year contract through 1993.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- Without a doubt 1990 was Rickey's finest year in what has been a brilliant career....his season was capped November 20th when he was named the American League Most Valuable Player...his first MVP award...garnered 14 of a possible 28 first place votes, and finished 31 points in front of second place finisher, Cecil Fielder...Henderson and Fielder were the only players named on all 28 ballots...Rickey the second Athletic in the last three years to win the award...Canseco won the award in 1988...Rickey the fourth Oakland Athletic overall to win the honor, joining Vida Blue (1971), Reggie Jackson (1973) and Canseco...in addition to his sensational regular season also had his second consecutive strong post season...hit .294 in the ALCS vs. Boston and then led the A's with a .333 average in the Series vs. Cincinnati...3 of his 5 hits in the Series for extra-bases...added a spectacular catch in game #2 at Cincinnati...in 24 career post season games is a .352 hitter (31 for 88) with 20 steals...for the regular season Rickey finished among the league leaders in several offensive categories...dueled Brett for the AL batting title through the last day but wound up second with a career best .325 average...average was below .320 for one day during the season...after the third game...led the league in runs (119), on-base percentage (.439) and in steals (65)...finished second to Fielder with a career high .577 slugging percentage...stolen base title the 10th time in 11 years he has paced the league...his 10th year of 50 or more steals an American League record...fell just short of breaking Lou Brock's major league record for stolen bases...Rickey with 936 steals needs just 3 more in 1991 to set the new standard...only 5 AL catchers nailed Rickey trying to steal...Gedman of the Red Sox (3B), the Yankees Geren (2B), Indians Alomar (2B), Twins Harper (2B) and Angels Parrish (2B)...Rickey picked off/caught stealing the other 5 times he was caught...scored in the first inning of 33 games...the A's were 26-7 in those games...scored twice from third on sacrifice flys to infielders...and in his most spectacular play of the season scored from second on a groundout to shortstop vs. the Yankees May 9th...tied his career high with 28 homers (1986)...5 of the 28 homers were leadoff shots to extend his major league record to 45 leadoff homers...April was a sign of things to come when Rickey hit .338...started consecutive games vs. Boston with homers May 5 and 6th...tied Cobb's AL record by stealing 3rd base on May 26th vs. Cleveland and then ran past Cobb 2 days later, May 29th, when he stole 3rd vs. the Blue Jays at the Coliseum...pushed his average to a .350 with a 10 for 20 burst June 6th through the 10th...stole career base #900 vs. Texas June 12th...wrapped up pre-All-Star play going 8 for 19 including 3 homers and 5 RBI's...made his 9th All-Star appearance...the most among 1990 AL starters...after the break, leg problems shut Rickey down for 7 days July 15-21st...leg problems would return in August...missed 7 more games August 8-14th...but despite the aches and pains his offense was relentless...for the season reached safely by a hit or walk in 125 of his 136 games...scored at least one run in 89 of his 136 games...did much of his damage on the road...hit .342 in foreign parks (92 for 269) with 20 of his 28 homers...road average second best in the loop to Palmeiro's .350.

CAREER: 1976-- reported to Boise after being drafted by the A's in the fourth round on the June draft...hit .336 with 29 steals in 36 attempts. 1977--at Modesto led the California League with a then-record 95 steals...was third in the league with a .345 average and 104 runs scored...became the fourth pro player to steal 7 bases in one game, 5/26 at Fresno. 1978--led the Eastern League with 81 steals...also led the league's outfielders with four double plays and 15 assists. 1979--stole 44 bases in only 71 PCL games with Ogden...was brought up by the A's June 23rd and moved into the starting lineup for good...led the club with 33 steals. 1980--became the first AL player and third big league player to steal 100 or more bases in a single season...broke Ty Cobb's AL mark of 96...was second in the loop with 117 walks, third in on-base percentage at .422 and fourth with 111 runs scored. 1981--named to The Sporting News All-Star team...led the AL with 135 hits, 89 runs and 56 steals...his .319 average was fourth best...in his first taste of post-season action hit .182 in the Division series vs. Royals and .364 in the ALCS vs. Yankees. 1982--set the season standard for stolen bases with 130...ran past Lou Brock's mark of 118 on 8/27 in Milwaukee...also set the record for most times caught stealing at 42...walked 5 times vs. California 4/8 a career high. 1983--went over 100 steals (108) for the third time in his career...Vince Coleman is the only other player to steal 100 or more bases more than once...tied the AL mark by combining to steal 7 bases in two consecutive games, July 3-4 vs. Texas...stole his 400th career base 8/21 at Milwaukee, becoming the youngest player ever to reach that plateau. 1984--66 steals topped the AL for the fifth consecutive season...was second in the AL with 113 runs...traded to New York at the winter meetings in Houston, December 8th. 1985--opened his Yankee career on the 15-day DL with a sprained left ankle...activated 4/22, missing 10 games...hit .314 for fourth best in the AL...his 146 runs scored led the league and was the highest total in the major leagues since Ted Williams scored 150 runs in 1949...it was the most runs by a Yankee since Joe DiMaggio scored 151 times in 1937...his .419 on-base percentage was fourth best in the league and a then career-best .516 slugging percentage was seventh in the league...became the first AL player to hit 20 homers and steal 50 bases in a season...stole his 500th base 5/10 at Kansas City...named AL Player of the Month for June. 1986--led the league in steals for the seventh consecutive year...only Luis Aparicio led the AL more consecutive years (9)...stole his 600th base 5/18 vs. Seattle...set personal career highs in homers (28), doubles (31), at-bats (608) and RBIs (74)...his 130 runs topped the major leagues for the second consecutive year...first player in the AL to lead the league in runs scored for consecutive seasons since Mickey Mantle 1960-61...finished with AL record 9 leadoff homers in one season...(major league record is 11 held by the Giants Bobby Bonds)...40 of the 113 runs driven in by Don Mattingly were scored by Rickey. 1987--suffered through an injury-plagued season...appeared in just 95 games, his lowest total since his rookie season of 1979...first injury came 6/4 at Milwaukee, a pulled right hamstring...went on the 15-day DL the next day and wound up missing 22 games...returned 6/29 but went back on the DL 8/1 (retroactive to 7/26) with the same hamstring problem...was reinstated on 9/1 after missing 33 games...stole 41 bases, but his streak of leading the league in steals was snapped at seven years by Seattle's Harold Reynolds...his own AL record for consecutive seasons with 50+ stolen bases also ended at seven...did not steal a base for 18 consecutive games (5/18-7/4), the longest such streak of his career...on 5/18 Curt Young snapped his streak of consecutive steals at 31...picked up career steal 700 9/29 at Boston. 1988--hit .305 which was .015 percentage points higher than his career BA coming into 1988...scored 100+ runs for the 7th time in his career...made his seventh straight and eighth overall All-Star appearance...fifth inning run scored 7/17 vs. Chicago was career #1,000...also picked up career RBI #500 at Cleveland 9/13...went 5 for 5 on 4/11 at Toronto...matched his personal career game high...led the major leagues with 93 steals...set a new Yankee season mark with that total...stolen base 6/4 at Baltimore was his 249th as a Yankee, setting a new Yankee career standard...stole four bases in a game three times...was successful on 44 of his last 46 attempts...6 homers were fewest hit in a season since hitting 6 in the strike shortened season of 1981...it was the lowest season total of his career...from 7/18-8/3, reached base safely leading off in 15 straight games...scored 11 of the 15 times. 1989-- returned home after the June 20th trade...was hitting .247 when he arrived...hit .294 for the A's and went on to reach base safely in 80 of his 85 games with Oakland...added 52 steals in 58 attempts and wound up leading the league for the 9th time in 10 seasons...reached 50 plus steals for the 9th time in his career to set a new AL record...breaking a tie with Ty Cobb...set a career game best with 5 steals vs. Seattle 7/29...wound up with a career best 126 walks...spectacular post season helped propel the A's to the World Championship...won ALCS MVP honors vs. Toronto...hit .400 and led all hitters with 15 total bases, 8 runs scored 5 RBI's and 7 walks...set a new LCS record with 8 steals...belted 2 homers in game #4...kept up the pace in the Series vs. San Francisco...topped everyone with 9 hits...added 2 walks, 4 runs scored and 3 steals...for the A's entire 9 game post season Rickey hit .441, scored 12 runs, had 15 hits of which 8 were for extra-bases, and walked 9 times...in addition had 8 RBI's and 11 steals.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Graduated from Oakland's Technical High School in 1976, where he played baseball, basketball and football...was All-Oakland Athletic League for three years in baseball...as a senior hit .465 and stole 30 bases...that year played for the North team in California's annual high school All-Star game at Anaheim Stadium...in football rushed for more than 1,100 yards in his senior year, and received a reported two dozen scholarship offers to play football...played with the A's Dave Stewart and Tigers' Lloyd Moseby on several youth teams while growing up in the Oakland area...the A's were his favorite team as a youngster...scouted and signed by current A's scout Jim Guinn...wears number 24 because "of the great Willie Mays"...lists favorite ballpark as Baltimore's Memorial Stadium...says the greatest influences on his career are "my mother and Tom Trebelhorn," current Milwaukee Brewer manager who was Rickey's manager in his first two years of professional baseball...favorite entertainer: Luther Vandross...Rickey and his wife, Pam, live with their daughter, Angela, in Hillsborough, California.

DID YOU KNOW...

That A's relief ace, Dennis Eckersley, has one no-hitter to his credit, and that current A's broadcaster, Ray Fosse, was Eck's catcher May 30, 1977 when Eckersley no-hit California in Cleveland.

RICK HONEYCUTT

LHP

Frederick Wayne Honeycutt

1991 Opening Day Age: 36

Born: Chattanooga, Tennessee, June 29, 1954

Bats: Left

Throws: Left

Height: 6-1

Weight: 191

Major League Service: 13 years, 42 days

Obtained: Acquired from the Los Angeles Dodgers in exchange for pitcher Tim Belcher, August 29, 1987.

Contract Status: First year of a two-year contract extension (signed June 22, 1990) through the 1992 season.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- Third season as the A's lefthanded setup man out of the bullpen and enjoyed another strong season...tied Eckersley for the most appearances on the staff (63)...the former starter worked in 60 plus games for the second consecutive season and kept his ERA under 3.00 for the second straight year...had a solid post season...appeared in 3 of the 4 ALCS games vs. Boston...did not allow a hit or run over 1.2 innings...saved game #4 to clinch the A's third consecutive AL pennant...made just one appearance in the Series...pitched 1.2 scoreless innings in game #2 at Cincinnati...in three seasons of working strictly relief for the A's has made 181 relief appearances, is 7-6 with 26 saves...on the A's staff over the 3 year span only Eckersley has saved more games...Honeycutt's ERA since 1988 is a tidy 2.87 (219.1 IP, 70 ER)...Rick opened the year with his best stuff...recorded a save on opening night, April 9th vs. Minnesota, and by May 25th was 1-1 with 2 saves and had allowed just 2 earned runs in his first 18.1 innings for an ERA of 0.98 in 15 appearances...Honeycutt's ERA did not go over 2.00 until June 20th after he allowed 3 earned runs at Detroit...but then allowed just 1 earned run over his final 7.1 innings before the All-Star break to lower his ERA back under 2.00 by the break...on July 4th in Milwaukee Rick fouled out as a pinch-hitter...he became the first A's pitcher in more than 3 years to hit...since Curt Young on April 17, 1987...pinch-hit again in Cleveland 2 days later, July 6th and struckout...back on the pitching side Honey was touched for 5 earned runs in his first 2 appearances after the break and his ERA jumped over 3.00 for the first time in 1990...but again he bounced back and by the end of August had picked up a win and 4 saves in his next 18 appearances...allowed just 2 earned runs in 14.0 innings over the 18 games...by September 1st his ERA was 2.63...kept it under 3.00 the remainder of the year...lefthanders hit just .163 vs. Rick on the season (14 for 86)...he allowed just 2 homers (Baines, Deer) in 63.1 innings, none in his last 33 appearances covering 26.0 innings...was especially tough at home...in the Coliseum was 2-0 in 28 games with a 1.80 ERA (30.0 IP, 6 ER)...recorded 6 of his 7 saves in Oakland...finished 0-2 on the road with 1 save, an ERA of 3.73 (31.1 IP, 13 ER).

CAREER: 1976--drafted by Pittsburgh in 17th round on June 1976 draft...played at Niagara Falls of the New York-Penn League that season...went 5-3 with a 2.60 ERA...had 98 strikeouts in 97 innings...walked just 20...set league marks for complete games (7), innings pitched and strikeouts...also played first base for Niagara Falls, and batted .301. 1977--played most of this season at Shreveport in the Texas League...went 10-6 with a 2.47 ERA...selected as the Topps' Double-A All Star left-handed pitcher...traded to Seattle on August 22 and immediately made his major league debut...appeared in 10 games for the Mariners, going 0-1 with a 4.34 ERA. 1978--spent the entire season with the Mariners and went 5-11 with a 4.90 ERA...spent most of the year in the starting rotation, appearing in 26 games and starting all but 2 of those...had 4 complete games and 1 shutout. 1979--won seven of his first 10 starts en route to his best season in the majors thus far...went 11-12 with a 4.04 ERA. 1980--started 7-1, before losing 14 of his last 15 decisions...suffered through a 10-day suspension when umpire Bill Kunkel detected a tack taped to Honeycutt's glove...still, had a career high 9 complete games and dropped his ERA below 4.00 for the first time in the majors. 1981--traded to Texas prior to the 1981 season...was 5-0 in his first seven starts at home and got off to an 8-1 start overall...finished the year 11-6 with a 3.31 ERA...appeared in just 20 games, all starts...walked just 17 in 128 innings. 1982--suffered through a tough 5-17 year...ERA ballooned to 5.27...lost first seven decisions, but proceeded to win four in a row, including a shutout over California on 6/22, when he snapped Rod Carew's 25-game hitting streak. 1983--split the season between Texas and Los Angeles...traded to the Dodgers in August...did well enough before the trade to win AL Comeback Player of the Year honors...led the league with a 2.42 ERA before being traded on 8/19...was 14-8 prior to the trade...was 2-3 with Dodgers after the trade...had a 5.77 ERA. 1984--won his first four decisions and six and seven before an arthritic shoulder caused him problems and eventually led to off-season surgery...had a 7-3 record and a 2.87 ERA at the All-Star break, but was 3-6 despite a 2.78 ERA in the second half...finished the year 10-9 with a 2.84 ERA. 1985--after undergoing off-season surgery to remove tip of clavical in left shoulder, split his first four decisions, before losing 3 straight in May...never got back to .500...lost five of last seven decisions...ended the year 8-12, but still had a 3.42 ERA. 1986--32 appearances and 28 starts were both second highest in his career...started slowly, but got his ERA down to a league-leading 1.93 on 6/25 by allowing 3 earned runs in a stretch of 40 innings...did not get over 3.00 consistently until late in September...had a streak of 25 scoreless innings at one point...struck out a career-high 100 batters, and his strikeout to walk ratio was the best of his career...allowed fewer hits than innings pitched for the fourth consecutive year. 1987--acquired from the Los Angeles Dodgers August 29th...for the Dodgers the lefthander was 2-12 with a 4.59 ERA in 27 games and 20 starts...came to the A's with a personal 11-game losing streak...in his 12 losses with Los Angeles, the Dodgers were outscored 75-16...made his A's debut September 2nd...first start for the A's was September 13th vs. Kansas City and was charged with 13th consecutive loss...snapped losing string with victory in starting assignment at Cleveland September 22nd...for the A's finished 1-4 with a 5.32 ERA in 23.2 innings...his combined totals for the season were 3-16 with a 4.71 ERA in 34 games and 24 starts. 1988--first full season in the bullpen...prior to the season had made 309 major league appearances, just 41 in relief...recorded first save of the year in Seattle April 13th despite tying major league record with four balks...picked up the win in Game 1 of the

ALCS at Boston...also worked in Games 3 and 4...then pitched in 3 of the 5 World Series games...only A's pitcher to record a win...in Game 2 pitched 2 hitless, scoreless innings and was the winner when McGwire homered. 1989-- was used in a setup role to Eckersley for much of the year but when Eck was injured in late May Honeycutt served as the A's "closer"...recorded 10 saves in 10 opportunities...appeared in 16 games during Eckersley's absence and in addition to his 10 saves had a 2.19 ERA...led the A's staff in appearances (64) and was second to Eckersley with a career high 12 saves...was not at his best in the post season...in six post season appearances covering 4.1 innings allowed 10 hits and 8 earned runs

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Rick and wife Debbie have 2 children, Holli Leah and Richard Farrell...resides in Signal Mountain, TN during the off-season...led Lakeview HS of Fort Oglethorpe, GA to 2 state baseball titles as pitcher-first baseman and also quarterbacked the football team...was All-SEC as a junior and senior at the University of Tennessee and was an All-American first baseman his senior year...in addition to his two pinch-hitting appearances in 1990 Rick had 24 hits with 8 RBI's during his National League days.

DID YOU KNOW...

That the same pitcher (California's George Brunet) gave up the first 2 Grand Slams in Oakland A's history. Sal Bando got to Brunet on April 16, 1969 vs. the Angels at the Coliseum and Rick Monday recorded his Grand Slam off Brunet exactly two weeks later in Anaheim.

Dann Paul John Howitt*1991 Opening Day Age: 27Born: Battle Creek, Michigan, February 13, 1964Bats: LeftThrows: RightHeight: 6-5Weight: 205Major League Service: 56 daysObtained: Oakland's 18th round selection in the June, 1986 free agent draft, regular phase.Contract Status: First year of a one-year contract through 1991.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- After an outstanding 1989 season at Double-A Dann made the jump to Triple-A Tacoma and after a slow start began to display the power and hitting ability he had shown in 1989 at Huntsville...did not homer until Tacoma's 67th game, on June 18th...but finished with 11 homers for the third best total on the club...was up with the Athletics for a week in late August and appeared in 2 games...made one start in rightfield at Detroit...and one pinch-hitting appearance...was 0 for 6 before returning to Tacoma for the Pacific Coast League playoffs...finished his Triple-A season with a .265 average, 11 homers and 69 RBI's in 118 games...tied for the club high in doubles with 30...in addition to playing 66 games at first base and 40 in the outfield Dann also played 19 games at third base...returned to Oakland September 10th and finished out the year with the A's...made 12 September appearances and picked up his first major league hit September 11th at Seattle...a triple off the M's Mike Gardiner...wound up 3 for 22 (.136) in 14 major league games...played first, third, and the outfield with the Athletics.

CAREER: 1986--after being drafted in the 18th round in June from Cal State Fullerton, spent his summer at Medford of the Northwest League...put together an excellent first pro year...his .317 average was sixth best in the league...that figure was second on his club as were his 37 RBIs...led the A's with 6 homers...named to Baseball America's Northwest League All-Star team. 1987--moved up to Modesto of the California League...had a difficult time with the adjustment...playing the full year at Modesto hit .208 with 8 homers and 42 RBIs. 1988--opened the year back at Modesto but had learned from the previous year...led his team with 18 homers and 86 RBIs...bumped his average up to .252, 44 points better than the previous season...moved up to supply depth to Triple-A Tacoma at the end of the California League season...appeared in 4 games for the Tigers with 2 hits in 15 at-bats. 1989--put together an outstanding season at Double-A Huntsville and earned a September promotion to Oakland...the first time he had ever worn a major league uniform...had never even attended major league camp at that point...Howitt led the A's system in homers (26), RBI's (111) and total bases (253)...and in the Southern League finished third in homers, second in RBI's and topped the loop in total bases...spent most of his time at first base (108 games) but also played 36 games in the outfield...arrived in Oakland after the Southern League playoffs and was 0 for 3 in pinch-hitting appearances.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Graduated from Hastings High School (Michigan) in 1982...played baseball and basketball in high school...attended Michigan State for two years...played in two Big 10 Championships before transferring to Cal St. Fullerton...drafted by the A's after the 1986 collegiate season...Dann's brother, Shaun, played in the Kansas City Royals organization...lists water skiing among his hobbies...Dann and his wife, Kimberly, reside in Medford, Oregon during the winter months.

Major League Service: 1 year, 61 days

Obtained: Acquired from the Minnesota Twins for a player to be named later (pitcher Russ Kibler) March 31, 1988.

Contract Status: First year of a one-year contract through 1991.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- A longshot to make the club as a non-roster player at spring training Klink not only made the club but became a valuable member of the best bullpen in baseball...used for short stints vs. mostly lefthanded hitters Joe excelled and registered his first full major league season...did not appear in the ALCS vs. Boston but did make one appearance in the Series...walked the only batter he faced in game #3...Joe had no decisions on the year but recorded his first major league save in his final appearance of the season, September 30th at Texas...Joe saved Steve Chitren's first major league win...his longest appearance of the season was 2.2 innings, twice...was at his best from July through the remainder of the season...on July 1st he had made 18 appearances and allowed 6 earned runs in 17.0 innings (3.68 ERA)...over his final 22 games of the season covering 22.2 innings Joe was touched for 3 earned runs (1.19 ERA) to lower his season ERA to a final 2.04...had success despite not pitching on a regular basis...in August had a stretch of 9 days where he did not see game action (August 10-18th) and then went a span of 11 days without work August 29-September 10th...lefthanded hitters hit for a .235 average (12 for 51) vs. Klink.

CAREER: 1983--drafted by the Mets in the 36th round Joe spent his first year of pro baseball at Columbia of the South Atlantic League...worked in 12 games, with one start...1984--returned to Columbia where he spent the full season...led his club with 11 saves and added 49 strikeouts in 38.2 innings...1985--moved to Lynchburg of the Carolina League and set then career highs in wins (3), games (44) and innings (51.2) plus had 59 strikeouts in just 51.2 innings...1986--January 16th was traded to Minnesota along with Billy Beane for Tim Teufel and Pat Crosby...reported to Orlando of the Southern League where he tied his then career high of 11 saves in 45 games...again had a high strikeout to innings pitched ratio with 63 strikeouts in 68.0 innings. 1987--made the Twins opening day roster and made his big league debut vs. the Athletics on April 9th in the Metrodome...made 12 relief appearances with one decision (a loss to Boston) before being optioned to Portland on June 5th. 1988--traded to Oakland for a player to be named later at the conclusion of spring training, March 31st...was sent to Huntsville to begin his A's career...after good success with the Stars (1-2, 0.78) was bumped up to Tacoma on June 19th to finish out the season...went 2-1 with 1 save and a 5.12 ERA in 27 games for Tacoma...1989--his best minor league season...opened the year in Huntsville and except for a two week stint at Tacoma in early June spent the year as the Stars "closer"...finished with a personal and league best 26 saves...had 59 strikeouts in 60.2 innings...his work in the Southern League earned Joe a spot on the league All-Star squad...during his two weeks in Tacoma worked in 6 games and did not allow a run over 6.2 innings.

CARNEY LANSFORD

IF

Carney Ray Lansford

1991 Opening Day Age: 34

Born: San Jose, California, February 7, 1957

Bats: Right

Throws: Right

Height: 6-2

Weight: 195

Major League Service: 13 years

Obtained: Acquired from the Boston Red Sox with outfielder Garry Hancock and a player to be named later (pitcher Jerome King) in exchange for outfielder Tony Armas and catcher Jeff Newman, December 6, 1982.

Contract Status: Third year of a three-year contract through 1991.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- A snowmobiling accident near his home in Baker, Oregon on the final day of 1990 put Carney's 1991 season in jeopardy...A's team orthopedist, Dr. Rick Bost, repaired the medial collateral ligament and reconstructed the anterior cruciate ligament in Carney's left knee on January 16th at Children's Hospital in San Francisco...Lansford is expected to miss much of the season...during the 1990 season Carney did not post the type of offensive numbers he did in 1989 but was once again rock solid at third base...for the fourth season in the past five was the top fielding third baseman in the American League (by percentage)...made just 9 errors in 126 games at third...a .970 pace...made just 2 errors after August 20th...since arriving in 1983 Lansford has played 971 games at third for the A's...in the Athletics history (1901-1990) only Sal Bando (1,446) has played more games at third base for the A's...Carney's average the second lowest of his career...hit .261 for the Angels during his third year in the league (1980)...the .268 average represented a drop of 68 points from his career best .336 in 1989...spent most of the season batting in either the 1, 2 or 3 spots of the order...batted second behind Rickey Henderson 80 times...the top number on the club...was the A's leadoff man 11 times when Rickey was out with injuries and batted in the third spot 19 times when Canseco was out of the lineup...opened the year scalding hot...in the A's first 7 games was 14 for his first 33 (.424) and capped that streak with a 3 hit night at Anaheim April 17th that included his first homer of the season...off Langston...cooled off over the second half of April and finished the month at .296 with 9 RBI's in 18 games...average remained around .300 through early June but fell under the .300 level June 6th and never did make it back...hit .226 in June and average slipped to .278 by the end of the month...hit one of the A's club record 7 homers in Cleveland July 6th...finished at .278 at the break with 3 homers and 32 RBI's...played in just one game after the break before his right hamstring tightened...spent 15 days on the DL July 12-27th...had 3 hits on 3 consecutive nights vs. the Yankees August 10-12th...and with 2 hits vs. the Red Sox in his next game was at .286 on August 13th...but that was the top mark for the remainder of the year...finished out the year 6 for his last 36.

CAREER: 1975--the Angels number 3 selection in the June draft...played in just 8 games at Idaho Falls. 1976--moved to Quad Cities and hit .287 with 14 homers and 86 RBIs...his RBI total was fourth in the Midwest League. 1977--his final minor league season...and his best...hit .332 at El Paso...finished third in the Texas League in runs scored (98), fourth in RBIs (94), tied for fifth in homers (18), plus led the league third baseman in fielding percentage, putouts, assists and double plays...named to the Texas League All-Star team...and league Topps Player of the Month for August. 1978--at the age of 21 took over the starting third base spot for the Angels...ended the year with a .294 average...the top figure for a rookie major leaguer with 100 or more at-bats...finished third in AL Rookie of the Year balloting...named Angel Rookie of the Year by the Los Angeles BBWAA. 1979--led AL third basemen in fielding (.983) with 7 errors in 157 games...finished 5th in runs scored (114), and 4th in hits (188)...added career high 19 homers plus 79 RBIs. 1980--average slipped to .261...but added career high 80 RBIs...and led AL third basemen in putouts and led league in sacrifice flies (11)...topped the Angels in GWRBIs (10) and runs (87)...traded to Boston with Mark Clear and Rick Miller for Rick Burleson and Butch Hobson, December 10th. 1981--hit .336 to lead the AL and become first right-handed hitter to lead league since 1970...second in AL hits (134), and fifth in OBP (.391)...led Bosox by hitting .366 with men on and .388 with men in scoring position...named third baseman on U.P.I. AL All-Star squad and on The Sporting News Silver Bat Team...finished 6th in AL MVP voting. 1982--second consecutive year over .300 (.301)...injured ankle in collision at home plate with the Tigers' Lance Parrish...still had 10 games of 3 or more hits and 45 multiple-hit games...traded to the A's in December. 1983--Carney was limited to just 80 games because of wrist and ankle injuries but still led the A's in hitting at .308...had a then personal and Oakland record 19-game hitting streak in July...went against the book hitting .343 vs. right-handers, .238 vs. left-handers...also hit .203 during the day and .342 under the lights. 1984--Carney led the A's with 48 multiple-hit games on the way to finishing up with his fourth straight .300 year...had 11 3-hit games and two 4-hit games...was hitting .265 when moved into the No. 2 spot in the batting order July 30th and went on to hit .355 the remainder of the season...hit in 52 of last 58 games, including an AL-high and team record 24-game streak from July 27th through August 21st....after going 0 for 5 against Detroit, Carney went on to hit in 11 consecutive games...collected the 1,000th hit of his career off Steve Farr of Cleveland September 8th...stole home June 18th against Kansas City as part of a double steal with Davey Lopes. 1985--Carney was on his way to a fine season until he was hit on the wrist by a pitch July 25th in Milwaukee...he suffered a broken right wrist that day, effectively ending his season...hit .282 up to that point in the campaign...he did try to come back, playing 7 games near the end of the season...hit .284 in May, .287 in June and .326 in July to keep the A's in the pennant race...had a 13-game hitting streak from June 15th through the 29th...had a fine year defensively, making only 5 errors to finish with a .976 fielding percentage (highest among AL regulars). 1986--Carney had another fine year with the A's both at the plate and in the field...rebounded from injury-plagued 1985 season with a .284 average and 19 homers...got out of the blocks fast, hitting an even .300 in April...continued to hit well in May, getting at least 1 hit in 13 of the first 14 games that month...finished May with a .276 average, 5 homers and 12 RBIs...hit .280 in June with 2 homers and 6 RBIs...stayed consistent through July and August, hitting .283 and .275 respectively...had 4 home runs in 5 games from August 22nd through the 26th...finished the season strong, hitting .305 in September. 1987--tied for the club high with a .289 average after flirting with .300 for most of the season...for second consecutive season hit 19 homers...that total tied his career high (3 times)...set a personal best with 27 steals...76 RBIs his best total since 1980 and third best for his career...was brilliant in the field all year long...made only 7 errors at third base in 354 total chances...led ML third basemen with a .980 fielding percentage. 1988--split season for Carney...was leading the A.L. in hitting on May 20th with a .402 average...hit safely in 46 of the A's first 53 games...named AL Player of the Month for May after hitting .444 for the month...but the wheels came off after he reached the .402 mark...for the remainder of the season hit .196...was named to the AL All-Star squad for the first time...went 0 for 1 in the game at Cincinnati...made just 7 errors at third base in 340 total chances...his .979 fielding percentage was the best among ML third baseman who played 100 or more games at the position...hit .294 in the ALCS vs. Boston with a double, homer and 2 RBIs...hit .167 vs. the Dodgers in the Series. 1989--one of his finest offensive seasons and one of the best in Oakland history...finished second to Puckett with a career best and club record .336 average...capped his year with a brilliant post season...hit a combined .444 (12 for 27) in the A's 9 post season games...added a homer, 8 RBI's and 5 walks...hit over .300 in all but one month (.292 in June) and better than .400 in both May and July...had a club best 19 game hitting streak from August 3-23rd...added a career best 37 steals to his offensive totals...spent most of his time batting behind Rickey in the #2 spot of the order...hit .362 in the second slot.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Graduated from Wilcox (Santa Clara, CA) High School...earned 10 letters in football, basketball and baseball...captained baseball team three years, basketball 2 years and football his senior season...in baseball was named MVP of Santa Clara Valley Athletic League and of Central Coast section his senior year...played Obtained: Oakland's 1st round selection (10th player overall) in the June, 1984 free agent draft, regular phase.

Contract Status: First year of a one-year contract through 1991.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- A powerful season for the A's first baseman...the first man to hit 30 or more homers in his first four full major league seasons...wound up with 39 for the season...the second best total of his career exceeded only by the 49 he hit during his Rookie of the Year season, 1987...topped the A's in RBI's (108), games played (156) and led the major leagues in walks with 110...the most by a member of the A's in 8 years (Rickey walked 116 times in 1982)...was second on the A's to Rickey in runs scored with 86...post season numbers were not up to his standards...wound up with 5 hits...all singles...hit .154 in the ALCS vs. Boston with 2 RBI's...and .214 in the Series with no RBI's...earned his first Rawlings Gold Glove for defensive excellence at first base...the first member of the A's in 5 years to win the coveted award...made just 5 errors in 1,429 total chances for a .997 fielding percentage...Hrbek was .0009 percentage points better to lead AL first baseman...led AL first basemen in games (154), putouts (1329) and total chances (1429)...did not make his first error until July 25th vs. California...the error snapped a streak over 2 years of 103 consecutive games without an error...had consistent power numbers all year...did not hit fewer than 5 homers in any month nor more than 8...June his best when he hit 8...longest streak without a homer did not come until the end of the season...hit his 39th homer September 21st...went the final 11 games without a homer...was consistent with power and run production but his average was around .220 for much of the season...it wasn't until a strong surge in September did he get over the .230 level to stay...had the first of five two-homer games on the year April 24th in Baltimore...also tied his career best with 5 RBI's in that game...but after that series slipped into a 3 for 29 spell and his average had dipped to .192 by May 7th...teamed with Canseco and Hassey in Cleveland May 16th to hit 3 consecutive homers...to tie the club record...had a second homer in that game and it was one of the most dramatic by the A's in 1990...a 2-run, 2 out, 9th inning homer off Indians ace reliever, Doug Jones, beat Jones and the Tribe by a 7-6 score and maintained the A's 2 game lead...by the end of May had his average back up to .215...had another 2 homer, 5 RBI game on June 5th in Texas...picked on the Indians again, this time July 6th, for 2 homers in one game...2 of the club record 7 the A's hit in that game...hit the All-Star break at .223 with 22 homers and 56 RBI's...selected by the fans for the third consecutive season as the AL's All-Star starting first baseman...had one of his three 4 walk games on the year August 4th in Anaheim...on August 29th his average was at .215...a career .296 hitter in September and he did not dissappoint in 1990...he hit .301 this September with 6 homers and 21 RBI's in 27 games...his September numbers brought his average from .221 at the start of the month to a final number of .235...Mark finished 11th in AL MVP voting.

CAREER: 1984--was the A's top pick in the June free agent draft...played 16 games that year for Modesto, batting .200 in 55 plate appearances. 1985--spent the full year as Modesto's starting third baseman...showed exceptional power...batted .274 in 138 games, and slugged 50 extra-base hits in 489 at-bats (23 doubles, 3 triples and 24 homers)...also had 106 RBIs and 108 strikeouts...earned the California League's Rookie of the Year Award. 1986--started the year in Double-A Huntsville but moved up to Tacoma June 6th and then up to Oakland August 20th...finished his minor league season with a .311 average, 148 hits, 23 home runs and 112 RBIs...picked up his first major league hit on August 24th vs. the Yankees Tommy John...belted his first homer the next day, also in New York...never really got in the groove with Oakland, batting .189 with 10 hits and 3 homers in 53 at-bats...fielding was a problem at third as he made 6 errors and fielded just .833. 1987--consensus American League Rookie of the Year...selected unanimously by the BBWAA, only the second rookie to earn that distinction (Carlton Fisk, 1972)...his 49 homers led the league and tied for the major league high with the Cubs' Andre Dawson...homer total also set a new major league rookie record...set a new Oakland single season standard, eclipsing Reggie Jackson's 47 hit in 1969...also topped the major leagues with a .618 slugging percentage, which also set an A's record...had at least 12 RBIs in each month of the season and 20 or more in 4 months...his RBI total the third best in the AL...finished sixth in the AL MVP voting...had a 5-homer spree in Detroit May 8-10th...in 3-game series at Cleveland June 26-28, hit 5 homers, knocked in 7 runs and scored runs in 9 consecutive at-bats...named to the AL All-Star team for the game in Oakland...had 33 homers with 68 RBIs at the break...tied major league rookie homer record of 38 August 11th at Seattle with a solo shot off the M's Mike Moore...set the new mark with his 39th homer in Anaheim August 14th, a 2-run homer in the 6th inning off the Angels Don Sutton. 1988--finished second on the club to Canseco with 32 homers and 99 RBIs...homer total of 32 was third best in the loop and RBI total was 8th best...back stiffness caused Mark to miss 9 of the A's last 16 games and his chance at 100 RBIs for the second consecutive season...named as the AL's starter at first base in the All-Star Game at Cincinnati...more than a third of his RBIs pulled the A's into a tie or put them ahead...hit .333 in the ALCS vs. Boston with a homer and 3 RBIs...recorded one of his greatest career moments when he homered off Jay Howell in the 9th inning of Game 3 in the World Series...the blast gave the A's a 2-1 victory...it was Oakland's only win in the series and Mark's only hit in 17 at bats. 1989--led the A's and ranked third in the AL with 33 homers...finished second to Parker on the A's and tenth in the league with 95 RBI's...led the league with a homer every

Michael Wayne Moore*1991 Opening Day Age: 31Born: Eakly, Oklahoma, November 26, 1959Bats: Right Throws: RightHeight: 6-4 Weight: 205Major League Service: 8 years, 121 daysObtained: Signed as a free agent, November 28, 1988.Contract Status: Third year of a three-year contract through 1991.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- A member of the A's starting rotation for the second consecutive season...started the year slowly and never did post the kind of numbers that he did in 1989 but still wound up with his third best total for wins in a season (13)...for the first time since 1983 did not work 200.0 innings...and did not strikeout 100 hitters for the first year since his rookie campaign of 1982...walked more than he struckout (84 to 73)...finished the season fourth on the staff in wins (13), starts (33) and innings (199.1)...started and won game #3 of the ALCS...Mike defeated Boddicker 4-1 with 6.0 innings of 1 run baseball...but did not fair as well in his one World Series start...game #3 in Oakland lost to Browning 8-3...Mike lasted 2.2 innings...was 1-1 in 4 April starts with a 6.08 ERA...put together a 3 game winning streak April 26th thru May 7th to run his record to 3-1...which turned out to be his best mark of the season...then dropped 5 of his next 6 decisions to fall 2 games under .500 on June 7th...2 of the losses in that 7 start streak complete games...including a 1-0 loss to Stieb at the Coliseum May 28th where Mike allowed just 6 hits and the 1 run plus a season high 6 strikeouts...won his last 2 starts before the break to finish 7-7 at the All-Star break with a 4.14 ERA...won his first start after the break to tie his season best winning streak at 3...July wound up being Moore's best month of the season...went 4-3 with a 3.69 ERA in 7 starts...put together another solid performance to beat the Blue Jays 3-0 at home on July 22nd...pitched 8.2 shutout innings...Honeycutt recorded the final out...but Mike then fell into another streak where he dropped 4 of his next 5 decisions...was 10-12 on August 21st before he put together a 2 game winning string to closeout August and start September...but in the start and win over Texas on September 2nd injured his right wrist when he collided with the Rangers Jeff Kunkel on a play at first base...missed 2 starts with the bruised wrist and did not pitch again for 16 days...finished the post All-Star break with a 6-7 record in 15 starts...an ERA of 4.92 (82.1 IP, 45 ER)...dropped 3 of his last 4 starts...was 1-3 in that span and allowed 19 earned runs in 17.2 innings...the A's were 15-18 in Mike's 33 starting assignments...during the year did not allow a homer over 13 starts covering 79.1 innings, June 23rd to August 28th...but then was touched for 6 homers in his last 33.0 innings...league hit a combined .267 vs. Mike (204 for 764)...AL hitters averaged .219 vs. Moore in 1989...finished 7-10 in 20 starts at home with a 4.66 ERA (119.2 IP, 62 ER)...and 6-5 in 13 road starts...a 4.63 ERA (79.2 IP, 41 ER).

CAREER: 1981-- after originally being drafted by St. Louis in the third round of the 1978 June draft, became the first righthanded pitcher ever to be the nation's No. 1 pick, when the Mariners made him their top choice in 1981...reported to Double-A Lynn and tossed 2 shutouts and 6 complete games in just 13 starts...was 6-5 with a 3.64 ERA. 1982--invited to major league spring training as a non-roster player and made the major league club by allowing just 1 ER in 20 spring innings...dropped first 2 ML decisions before recording his first career win on April 22 vs. Minnesota...had a four-hitter in Cleveland on July 24. 1983--opened the year in Seattle, but was optioned to Salt Lake after an 0-3 start...tossed a 2-hit shutout over Milwaukee on August 23...combined with Bill Caudill for 6-hit shutout September 24 at Texas. 1984--6th in AL in strikeouts despite losing a club-record 17 games...Mariner's opening night starter...missed 2 starts in May due to a strained forearm muscle. 1985--tied a Mariner record with 17 wins, tying for 4th best in the league...tied for 2nd in the league with a Mariner-record 14 complete games...10th in league with 155 strikeouts and 13th with a 3.46 ERA...had a no-hitter for 8 innings on May 8 at Milwaukee, before Robin Yount led off the 9th with a single...was on 15-day DL from June 5 to June 21 with a strained right thigh muscle...in 28 starts after May 8, was 15-7 with a 2.96 ERA and 14 CG. 1986--tied for league lead with 37 starts, another Mariner record, was 4th in innings pitched and tied for 6th with 11 complete games...lost 6 of first 8 decisions, but rebounded to win 3 of next 4...earned 1st ML save with a perfect inning of relief vs. the A's, September 8. 1987--struggled during the first half, going 3-10 with a 4.90 ERA, then dropped first 4 starts of second half...threw 6 straight CG from August 1 through August 25...went 6-5 in last 12 starts. 1988--opened the year as the Mariners' number two starter behind Langston, but by the end of May found himself in the bullpen...was 2-6 with a 5.51 ERA...in five relief appearances went 1-0 with his second career save...moved back into rotation on June 14th and remained there for the balance of the season...by August had become one of the top starters in the league...for the months of August and September was 5-3 with a 2.28 ERA...had 5 complete games, 2 shutouts and 91 strikeouts in 90.2 innings...had a brilliant game at Yankee Stadium August 19th, striking out career best 16 in the complete game win. 1989--put together an outstanding first year for the A's...won a career high 19 games...finished second to Stewart on the staff in starts (35), complete games (6), and innings pitched (241.2)...topped the A's with 172 strikeouts...named to his first AL All-Star squad and pitched one inning in Anaheim...recorded 3 wins in 3 post season starts...beating Toronto in game #2 of the ALCS and then San Francisco twice in the Series...game #2 and the clinching game #4...worked a total of 20.0 innings in the post season and allowed just 3 earned runs (1.35 ERA)...for the season AL hitters averaged just .219 vs. Moore...Athletics were 21-14 in his 35 starts...was the starter and winner the night the night the A's clinched the AL West title 9/27 vs. Texas.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Mike and his wife, Joyce, reside in Tempe, Arizona with their twin daughters Amanda and Jessica and son Samuel...Moore earned 6 letters in baseball and basketball and Eakly (Oklahoma) H.S....was named All-America in baseball and All-Oklahoma in basketball...attended Oral Roberts University, earning a spot on The Sporting News All-America team in 1981...was 12-2 that season...named MVP of the 1979 and 1980 National Baseball Congress national tournaments, playing for Liberal, Kansas...one of the top golfers on the A's squad...along with teammate McGwire, played in the 1991 AT&T/Crosby Tournament at Pebble Beach.

Wayland Eugene Nelson II*1991 Opening Day Age: 30Born: Tampa, Florida, December 3, 1960Bats: Right Throws: RightHeight: 6-0 Weight: 174Major League Service: 8 years, 84 daysObtained: Acquired from the Chicago White Sox along with a player to be named later (pitcher Bruce Tanner) in exchange for infielder Donnie Hill, December 11, 1986.Contract Status: First year of a two-year contract extension (signed June 22, 1990) through the 1992 season.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- Fourth season as the A's righthanded setup man in the bullpen and posted a career best 1.57 ERA...opened the year with 9.2 scoreless innings and the highest his ERA ever reached on the year was 1.74 on September 13th...over the last 3 years is 15-14 with a 2.70 ERA (266.1 IP, 80 ER)...his ERA over the 3 year period more than a run better than his career number (3.93)...put up solid numbers in the post season...altogether made 3 relief appearances and worked a total of 6.2 scoreless innings...did not record a decision or save...during the year Gene saved 5 games...his best total since he saved a career high 6 with Chicago in 1986...worked in 50 or more games for the 5th consecutive season...final total of 74.2 innings his lowest figure since he pitched the same amount in 1984...first save of the season April 18th in Anaheim...pitched 3 scoreless innings to save Sanderson's 100th career victory...picked up his first win a week later in Baltimore April 25th...allowed 4 runs over 7 appearances April 27th thru May 22nd but then gave up just 1 run over his next 15 games...a span of 20.2 innings over two months...that streak included a win vs. California July 23rd...was 1-2 at the break with 3 saves and a 1.23 ERA in 24 games...was 1-0 with 1 save in 9 August appearances...allowed just 2 earned runs in 15.1 innings (1.17 ERA)...control problems led to trouble in September...walked 5 in a 4.1 inning stretch September 13-22nd...one of the walks scored in the 10th inning in front of a Sorrento homer that gave the Twins a 3-1 win over the A's and Nelson September 13th at the Coliseum...but finished up strong...did not allow a run over his last 6 appearances...a span of 7.1 innings...was 1-2 at home in 19 games...a 1.91 ERA (28.1 IP, 6 ER) with 3 saves...was even better on the road...was 2-1 in 31 road games with a 1.36 ERA and 2 saves...(46.1 IP, 7 ER)...AL hitters hit just .208 vs. Nelson in 1990 (55 for 264).

CAREER: 1978-- selected by Texas in the 29th round of the June, 1978 free agent draft and assigned to Sarasota...went 5-0 with a 2.25 ERA in 14 games. 1979--traded to the Yankees' organization...with Asheville, went 13-5 with a 3.60 ERA...used as a reliever half the time, but picked up no saves. 1980--spent the entire year with Ft. Lauderdale of the Florida State League...named Yankees' minor league player of the year and a league all-star by posting a 20-3 record with a 1.97 ERA. 1981--split the year between Ft. Lauderdale, Columbus and the Yankees...had a combined 8-1 record in 15 games...with the Yankees he was 3-1 with a 4.85 ERA. 1982--traded to the Seattle Mariners on April 1st with pitcher Bill Caudill and a player to be named later in exchange for pitcher Shane Rawley...spent majority of the season with the big club, posting a 6-9 record with a 4.62 ERA in 22 appearances...pitched in 5 games for Triple-A Salt Lake city, going 1-3. 1983--again split time between Seattle and Salt Lake City, going 9-4 with a 5.18 ERA in the minors, and 0-3 with a 7.88 ERA in Seattle. 1984--started the season in Salt Lake City, but was traded to the Chicago White Sox on June 27th along with pitcher Jerry Don Gleaton in exchange for pitcher Salome Barojas...appeared in 20 games for the Pale Hose, going 3-5 with a 4.46 ERA. 1985--was a workhorse on the White Sox staff...appeared in a then career high 46 games (18 as a starter) and posted a 10-10 record with a 4.26 ERA...set career highs in wins, losses, innings pitched (145.2), strikeouts (101) and saves (2). 1986--for the second year in a row, Gene proved to be a workhorse on the Chicago staff...efforts resulted in a .500 season--6 wins, 6 losses...he appeared in a third of Chicago's games (54), and picked up 6 saves...continued his year-by-year improvement, posting a major league career low ERA of 3.85...gave up slightly more than 1 hit per inning worked, allowing 118 hits in 114.2 innings...unlike 1985, Gene wasn't prone to giving up the long ball...in '85, he gave up 23 homers in 145-plus innings...gave up only 7 homers in 114-plus innings in '86. 1987--got off to a rocky start...was 0-1 with a 7.11 ERA in 8 April relief appearances...allowed 6 earned runs in first 4.1 innings, but was brilliant over the next four months...was 6-2 with 2 saves in 37 appearances from May through August, with an ERA of 2.46 over 87.2 innings...top month of year was May when he went 2-0...allowed just 3 earned runs in 18.0 innings for an ERA of 1.50...moved into the starting rotation in August due to injuries...made 6 starts before returning to the pen...was 1-3 as a starter with a 5.34 ERA in 28.2 innings...lone win as a starter was in front of a national TV audience August 22nd at the Coliseum...beat New York, pitching season high 6.1 innings...tied Eckersley for the staff high in appearances (54)...fourth on the club in innings (123.2) and fifth in strikeouts (94)...entered game 7 times with the bases loaded...allowed just 3 runners to score on those 7 occasions. 1988--a member of the A's record-breaking relief crew...for the third consecutive season worked in 54 games...had 1 start...finished with a then career best ERA of 3.06...in the 12th inning at Toronto on July 3rd made history and assured himself a place in trivia contests when he stole second base...was first pitcher to steal a base since the designated hitter rule took effect in 1974...had 2 wins in the ALCS vs. Boston...had a fine Series, allowing just 1 ER over 6.1 innings. 1989--first season of pro career that he did not start a game...appeared in 1 game of the ALCS vs. Toronto and 2 games of the World Series vs. San Francisco...did not allow a run in 1.1 innings during the ALCS but after a 3 week layoff due to the earthquake was touched for 6 earned runs in 1.0 Series inning...during the season got off to a great start...did not allow a run over his first 9 appearances covering 12.1 innings...also finished strong...had a string of 21.0 scoreless innings snapped in his final game of the regular season, 10/1 vs. Kansas City...allowed just 9 hits with 24 strikeouts over his final 21.1 innings of work.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Gene and his wife Cecilia reside in Dade City, FL with their two sons, David and Wayland and daughter April...Gene was raised in Tampa, Florida...graduated from Pasco High School (Dade City, Florida) in 1978...drafted by the Texas Rangers in the 29th round (690th player selected), and after trade to Yankees in 1979 went 20-3 at Ft. Lauderdale in 1980...named Yankees minor league pitcher of the year...finished his minor league career with a glittering won-loss record of 59-23.

RELIEF PITCHERS' SAVE RULE

A pitcher is credited with a Save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
 - b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
 - c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings

Jamie Partick Quirk

1991 Opening Day Age: 36

Born: Whittier, California October 22, 1954

Bats: Left

Throws: Right

Height: 6-4

Weight: 200

Major League Service: 12 years, 126 days

Obtained: Re-signed as a free agent by the A's, November 27, 1990.

Contract Status: First year of a two-year contract through 1992.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- In his second go-round with the A's the veteran proved to be a very valuable addition...in addition to starting 26 games behind the plate (A's were 15-11 in his starts) Jamie hit better than 40 points above his lifetime average of .237 and throughout the year came up with clutch hits...wound up hitting .448 with men in scoring position (13 for 29) and had 26 RBI's in 56 games...was also one of manager La Russa's top hitters off the bench...as a pinch-hitter Jamie 4 for 11 (.364) with a HR, 4 RBI's plus walked 3 times...in fact had one at-bat in the ALCS vs. Boston...and that was a key 7th inning pinch-single off Clemens in game #1 that set up the game tying run...made one appearance in the Series...started behind the plate in game #4 and caught Stewart...it was Jamie's first career World Series appearance...during the season in addition to his offense tossed out 50% of potential AL base thieves (10 of 20) and also played first, third and right field...his first game and at-bat of the season gave the A's a glimpse of things to come...pinch double in Seattle April 13th scored two runs...average had dropped to .150 by June 11th...but from that point on hit at a .296 clip with all 3 of his homers and had 23 RBI's in 41 games...when Steinbach went down with an injury July 3rd through the 27th Jamie took over a larger share of the catching chores...responded by hitting .288 during Terry's absence and tossed out 2 of 5 attempting to steal...biggest game of the year a start at Cleveland on July 6th...his final game before the break...was 3 for 5 with a homer and added 4 RBI's...Quirk's homer one of a club record 7 hit by the A's that night...in addition to helping with the catching also started 2 games at third base during Lansford's absence due to an injury...did not find much playing time in August with the return of Steinbach and Lansford but Quirk finished the year strong...in his last 16 games hit at a .313 clip (10 for 32)...including a final burst of 4 for 10 with a homer, 4 RBI's and a walk.

CAREER: 1972--was Kansas City's first round selection (18th overall) in the June draft...led Pioneer League shortstops in fielding (.889), putouts, assists, and double plays...named to the league's all-star squad, 1973--moved up to San Jose and hit .231 with 8 homers and 45 RBI's. 1974--split his season between Double-A Jacksonville and Triple-A Omaha...hit .281 in his first taste of Triple-A baseball. 1975--spent most of the season at Omaha...led the league third basemen in fielding (.958), assists, total chances and double plays...made his major league debut with the Royals September 4th as a pinch-hitter for George Brett...drew a walk...his initial big league hit came September 9th vs. the A's in the Coliseum, a 14th inning single off Jim Todd...first homer was also vs. the A's, a ninth-inning pinch-homer off Rollie Fingers September 20th at Royals Stadium. 1976--first full major league season...appeared in 64 games at four different positions...traded to Milwaukee in a five player deal, December 6th. 1977--spent the season with the Brewers, hitting .217 in 93 games. 1978--played almost a full season at Milwaukee's Triple-A club in Spokane, but was then reacquired by Kansas City for pitcher Gary Ako on August 3rd...appeared in 17 games for the Royals. 1979--hit a career high .304 for Kansas City...used primarily as a pinch-hitter and late inning defensive replacement. 1980--hit .276 for the Royals with 5 homers and 21 RBI's in 62 games...best offensive day of his career was at Toronto August 8th...went 4 for 4 with two homers and four RBI's in Royals' win. 1981--hit .250 in just 46 games for the Royals. 1982--the last of four consecutive seasons with Kansas City...became a free agent at the end of the year. 1983--signed with the St. Louis Cardinals February 16th...played a full year with the Cardinals and his former manager at KC, Whitey Herzog. 1984--a busy year for Jamie...was released by St. Louis on March 26th, then later named a coach by the Cardinals...but on May 23rd the Chicago White Sox signed him to a player's contract...after playing just 3 games with Chicago was shipped to Triple-A Denver...spent most of the year with Denver but on September 24th his contract was purchased by Cleveland...and while with the Indians made just one game appearance with one at-bat...but that one at-bat was a pinch-hit homer that beat Minnesota and contributed to Kansas City's AL West title...was released by Cleveland following the season. 1985--resigned by Kansas City on February 25th and opened the year back in Omaha...brought up to Kansas City on August 20th...picked up 16 hits in 19 games for the Royals...was active for the post season...was 0 for 1 in the ALCS vs. Toronto but did not play in the Series vs. St. Louis. 1986--first full major league season since 1983...played in 80 games, the second highest total of his major league career...belted a career best 8 homers, homering 5 times in his last 22 games. 1987--set single season career best totals in games (109), at-bats (296), hits (70), doubles (17), and RBI's (33)...also had a career best 11 game hitting streak May 22nd through June 3rd...cracked his only career grand slam August 22nd at Milwaukee off Mark Knudson...had 5 RBI's that day for a personal one game high. 1988--completed his third separate stint with Kansas City...tied his career high in homers (8)...caught 79 games...also played one game at third base and one game at first...was granted free agency October 26th and signed by the Yankees on December 20th. 1989--wore four different uniforms...started out with the Yankees but made just 13 appearances, 6 starts before being released May 16th...A's signed Jamie to a Triple-A contract May 27th...then brought him to Oakland June 16th...appeared in 9 games for the Athletics, made one start, before being released July 28th...Baltimore signed Quirk August 5th after Mickey Tettleton was injured...saw his most extensive action with the O's...appeared in 25 games making 17 starts behind the plate...best streak was September 19-23rd when Jamie picked up 4 hits in 6 at-bats with 5 RBI's to help the Orioles win two big games to stay in the AL Eastern Division race.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Now a 19 year veteran of professional baseball...Jamie and Chet Lemon are the only number one picks from the 1972 draft still playing in the major leagues...Lemon was the A's first round selection...Quirk is a 1972 graduate of St. Paul High School in Santa Fe Springs, California...he earned four letters in baseball and three each in basketball and football...a quarterback in football he was named to All-

America teams by Prep Magazine and Athlete Magazine as a junior...turned down a full football scholarship to Notre Dame to sign with Kansas City...Jamie and his wife, Anna, reside in Overland Park, Kansas with their three children, Kindal Marie (7-23-85), Kelly (9-15-86) and Kemer (11-29-89).

DID YOU KNOW...

That Tony La Russa recorded a pinch-hit in his very first at bat as a member of the Oakland A's. Batting for pitcher Paul Lindblad, Tony slapped a ninth-inning single April 17, 1968, opening night at the Oakland Coliseum.

Eric Vaughn Show*1991 Opening Day Age: 34Born: Riverside, California, May 19, 1956Bats: Right Throws: RightHeight: 6-1 Weight: 185Major League Service: 9 years, 34 daysObtained: Signed as a free agent by the A's, December 10, 1990.Contract Status: First year of a two-year contract through 1992.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- Came back to appear in 39 games following back surgery in August, 1989...39 appearances represented the second highest total of his career...exceeded only in 1982 when he appeared in 47 games...bounced between the Padre's rotation and bullpen for much of the year...started slow but finished up the season strong...was 1-8 with a 6.71 ERA on July 21st...but in his final 22 appearances went 5-0 with a save (his first since July 8, 1982) and an ERA of 4.62 (48.2 IP, 25 ER)...opened the year in San Diego's starting rotation but after going 0-5 in his first 6 starts he was moved to the bullpen May 22nd...eventually went 0-6 before recording his first win July 4th vs. Pittsburgh in a 5.0 inning relief stint...was placed back in the rotation for 5 starts July 16-August 7th and went 2-2 in the 5 starts before moving back to pen...made 18 consecutive relief appearances before a start in his final appearance as a Padre...at Dodger Stadium on the final day of the season, October 3rd...went 5.0 innings to defeat Los Angeles 7-3...it was Eric's 100th career victory...in addition to being the top winner in Padre history, Eric left San Diego as their all-time pitching leader in strikeouts (951), and appearances (309)...he also ranked second on the Padre's career pitching lists in innings (1603.1), complete games (35), and tied for second in career shutouts (11).

CAREER: 1978--drafted in the 18th round out of UC Riverside by San Diego Eric reported to Walla Walla of the Northwest League...finished with the 10th best ERA (2.85) in the league. 1979--struckout 186 in 169.0 innings at Reno of the California League...second best strikeout total in the league...finished up 13-9 in 28 games, 27 starts. 1980--bumped up to Double-A Amarillo of the Texas League and was 12-6 in 26 starts...struckout 144 in 166 innings. 1981--opened the year at Triple-A Hawaii but by September had earned his first trip to San Diego...used primarily in relief at Hawaii Eric went 7-3 with a 2.54 ERA in 34 games, just 5 starts...made his major league debut vs. the Cubs on September 2nd...worked 2.0 scoreless innings...worked in 15 games, all in relief, with 3 saves during the final month...recorded his first save 2 days after his debut with 2.0 innings scoreless innings vs. Pittsburgh...and picked up his first win September 19th with a victory over Atlanta. 1982--was in the Padres bullpen to start the season...made 24 consecutive relief appearances before making his first major league start, June 30th at Los Angeles...beat the Dodgers 6-4...eventually moved into the starting rotation...tossed first complete game and shutout August 6th a 5-hitter vs. Chicago...finished up with the fourth best ERA in the National League at 2.64. 1983--in San Diego's rotation won what was then a career best 15 games...included in his 15 victories several outstanding performances...on April 28th at Wrigley Field retired the first 16 Cubs he faced before winning 3-1 with a 3-hitter...in his next start shutout St. Louis 10-0...then in late May defeated Seaver and the Mets 2-0 tossing a 2-hit shutout. 1984--won 15 games and worked more than 200.0 innings for the second consecutive season...won 7 of his last 10 decisions...his lone shutout of the year was in the Astrodome June 19th...blanked the Astros on 2 hits to tie his career low-hit complete game...was 9-4 on the road and just 6-5 at home in San Diego. 1985--despite not winning 15 games for the first time in 3 years Eric was the only San Diego starter not to miss a turn (35 starts) and topped the Padres in innings (233.0) and strikeouts (141)...finished strong winning 3 in-a-row in September allowing just 2 earned runs in 25.2 innings (0.70 ERA)...had 4 RBI's with a homer (the last of 4 major league homers) September 27th at Atlanta...also became a part of major league history on September 11th in Cincinnati, when Pete Rose collected hit #4,192 off Eric in the first inning. 1986--suffered the first disabling injury of career...had two different stints on the DL with flexor tendinitis in his right elbow...second time was August 28th and it ended his season....injury flared up during a then career best 4 game winning streak June 14-July 1st...the injury forced Eric to leave each start early...was on the DL for the first time in his career July 8th through July 31st...came back to win 2 games in August but his season ended after a start on August 25th vs. New York...when healthy Eric established a personal high with 13 strikeouts in a 10 inning 3-2 loss to San Francisco April 26th. 1987--finished just 8-16 but still led the Padres staff in innings (206.1) and shutouts (3) and tied for the club lead in starts (34)...he tossed a pair of shutouts at the Dodgers...a 3-hitter on April 26th when he retired 18 consecutive hitters...and a 4-hitter July 1st. 1988--top professional season where he established personal highs in wins (16), complete games (13), innings pitched (234.2) and strikeouts (144)...his 13 CG's ranked third best in the National League and were the most by a Padres' pitcher since Randy Jones had 25 in 1976...went 10-3 in his last 14 starts with a 2.79 ERA...he completed 10 of his last 15 starting assignments...ended the season with a career best 5 game winning streak winning 9 of his last 10 decisions...his walks per nine inning ratio was the sixth best in the league at 2.0. 1989--for the second time in four years, Eric's season was cut short due to an injury...made his first 16 starts before missing a start July 1st with a back problem...he was subsequently placed on the 21 day DL July 15th, then had surgery August 2nd at Scripps Clinic in La Jolla, California...surgery was performed by Dr. Roger Thorne...the operation consisted of removal of the lumbar 5 disc (lower back) as well as 3 fragments that were pressing against nerves...he was then moved to the 60-day emergency DL...opened the year needing just 6 wins to tie Randy Jones as the all-time winningest pitcher in San Diego history...matched Jones mark of 92 victories on May 23rd vs. New York...and then 3 weeks later on June 14th he took over the number one spot on the Padres victory list with a 4-2 win over Cincinnati...his last start of the season was June 25th.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Eric and his wife, Cara Mia, reside in San Diego...played his collegiate baseball at UC Riverside...majored in physics...when not playing baseball Eric spends much of his time in recording studios working as a jazz musician...also performs at various jazz concerts throughout the Southern California area...Eric released an album a year ago titled "America 4/4 to Go".

Curtis Allen Young

1991 Opening Day Age: 30

Born: Saginaw, Michigan, April 16, 1960

Bats: Right

Throws: Left

Height: 6-1

Weight: 180

Major League Service: 6 years, 110 days

Obtained: Oakland's 4th round selection in the June, 1981 free agent draft.

Contract Status: Second year of a two-year contract through 1991.

1990 HIGHLIGHTS -- The A's fifth starter and due to off days did not work on a regular basis...did not take a regular turn until June...9 of his 21 starts came on a regular rotation basis...(3 or 4 days rest)...in fact his first 2 appearances of the season were out of the bullpen...wound up making 5 relief appearances in 1990...for the second consecutive season did not work in the American League Championship Series...made one appearance in the Series vs. Cincinnati...worked one inning in game #3 at Oakland...allowed no runs on 1 hit...during the season, allowed 16 earned runs in 13.0 April innings...2 of those outings in relief...after that tough April start Young finished the season 9-5 with a 4.12 ERA (111.1 IP, 51 ER)...bounced back from his April to go 2-0 in May with a 3.60 ERA...first win of the year May 6th vs. Boston at the Coliseum...pitched his best baseball of the season in his 6 appearances (5 starts) prior to the All-Star break...from June 1st to July 8th was 2-2 despite allowing just 6 earned runs over 29.2 innings...(1.82 ERA)...was 4-3 at the break with a 4.26 ERA...first start after the break went 8.0 innings to defeat Milwaukee...tied his longest stint of the year and lowered his ERA to 3.93...his lowest mark of the year...Curt won 3 of his first 4 decisions after the break...was 4-2 with a 3.66 ERA for July and August...but allowed 16 earned runs over his final 21.1 innings and wound up with the highest ERA on the A's staff...and the highest of his pro career in a season where he has worked 100 or more innings...as with most of the A's pitching staff was better at home than away...was 5-2 in 14 home appearances, 11 starts...an ERA of 3.18 (70.2 IP, 25 ER)...on the road was 4-4 in 12 games, 10 starts...finished with a road ERA of 7.04 (53.2 IP, 42 ER).

CAREER: 1981--after the June draft assigned to Medford...after 8 starts was moved to Modesto where he went 2-1 with a 3.48 ERA in 5 games...combined at both stops to strike out 71 in 84 innings. 1982--first full pro year and he helped pitch Modesto to the California League title...was 15-8 with a 3.48 ERA...led the league in innings pitched (205) and games started (28)...was second in strikeouts (162), fourth in complete games (12), and tied for fourth in wins (15)...received honorable mention on the league All-Star team. 1983--opened the year in Tacoma but was called to Oakland June 21st...made his major league debut in Texas June 24th, pitching 4.1 innings and getting the loss...returned to Tacoma July 1st...led the Tiger staff for the year in wins (12), strikeouts (109), games started (25), innings pitched (159) and hits allowed (175)...came back to the A's for September and pitched in relief for 6 games covering 2.1 innings. 1984--Young was one of Oakland's most dependable starters after being called up from Tacoma June 22nd...started his first game June 26th at Kansas City...shut out the Royals on 2 hits for 6.2 innings in the second game of a doubleheader for his first Oakland win...threw a 9-hit shutout at Milwaukee in his 3rd start on July 6th to lower his ERA to 0.87 and up his record to 2-0...after 10 starts was 6-1 with a 2.54 ERA...went 3-3 the rest of the way...gave up four hits and no runs in 8 innings on July 25th at Minnesota's Metrodome as the A's took a 1-0 win...pitched better on the road where he was 6-2 with a 3.36 ERA as opposed to his 3-2, 4.89 record at the Coliseum...was 6-4 with a 3.78 ERA and 5 complete games in 14 starts at Tacoma before his promotion. 1985--Curt was bothered by tendonitis much of the season, and never really got on track...was placed on the disabled list on April 30th and was sent to Modesto June 29th on rehabilitation assignment...returned to Oakland July 5th before being sent to Tacoma an August 13th...finished the year 0-4 with Oakland with a 7.24 ERA. 1986--proved to be one of Oakland's best pitchers...ironically, Young did not make the A's Opening Day roster due to several poor spring outings...began the season with Triple-A Tacoma and went 4-0 with a 2.00 ERA in 4 starts...in 27 innings he gave up 16 hits, walked 6 and struck out 28...was called up to Oakland on May 9th and immediately was inserted in the starting rotation...got off to an auspicious start going 3-1 with a 2.60 ERA...finished up the campaign on a positive note throwing a 5-1 complete game victory vs. Cleveland on September 19th, an 8 inning 3-hitter vs. Texas on September 29th and a 1-hitter vs. Kansas City on the last day of the season...overall was 9-2 with a 2.37 ERA at home and 4-7 with a 5.19 ERA on the road. 1987--opening night pitcher for the A's...was among the league leaders in several pitching categories until an arm injury knocked him off the mound for 3 weeks...was 9-4 in 16 starts prior to injury, with a 3.37 ERA...after strained bicep was 4-3 in 15 starts with a 6.12 ERA...finest start of year came on June 9th in Coliseum vs. White Sox...tossed the second 1-hitter of his career, and 11th in Oakland Athletics history...allowed only a 2-run homer to Ken Williams with 2 out in the 8th inning...then retired the final 4 men he faced...strained his bicep in the 4th inning of start vs. same White Sox in Chicago on June 29th...did not return until July 20th in Detroit...set career highs in starts (31), innings pitched (203.0), strikeouts (124), and complete games (6). 1988--split year for Curt...struggled into mid-July...was actually outrighted off the A's roster July 19th, but never did report to Tacoma...instead worked with A's pitching coach Dave Duncan...returned a new pitcher August 10th...was 6-7 with a 5.77 ERA when he was taken off the roster...after returning went 5-1 with a 2.09 ERA...won 10 or more games for the third consecutive season...finished fourth on the staff in innings pitched (156.1), starts (26) and wins (11)...A's were 16-10 in his 26 starts...made one appearance in both the ALCS and World Series, both in relief...pitched 1.1 innings in Game 3 of the ALCS vs. Boston and a scoreless inning of relief in Game 1 of the World Series vs. Los Angeles. 1989--opened the year in the A's rotation but after 5 starts was 1-3 with a 5.47 ERA and from that point on was in and out of the rotation for the balance of the season...was the only player on the A's 24 man playoff roster not to participate in the A's post season...on the last day of June was 2-8 with a 5.61 ERA, and was coming off a month where he went 0-4 with a 7.71 ERA...but then turned things around and from July 1st on pitched very effectively the remainder of the year...went 3-1 with a 1.80 ERA (40.0 IP, 8 ER) in 11 games, 8 starts.

PERSONAL/MISCELLANEOUS: Graduated from Arthur Hill High (Saginaw, MI) in 1978...earned 3 letters in baseball, 2 each in basketball and football...was the All-Conference quarterback his senior year...attended Central Michigan University (Mount Pleasant, MI)...majored in business...at Central Michigan was 6-2 his sophomore year and helped pitch his club to a berth in the NCAA Division I Mideast Regional Tournament...was 7-3 his junior year and again helped Central Michigan to the league title and an NCAA berth...was named first team All-League...in September 1980 he pitched for the United States team in the World Amateur Baseball Tournament in Japan...team also toured Korea and Taiwan...enjoys golf, hunting and fishing during his off hours...resides in Scottsdale, Arizona with his wife, Kathy, and their son Daniel.

1990: A LOOK BACK

1990 SEASON IN REVIEW

ABOUT THE A'S: For the third consecutive year the A's topped the major leagues in victories...the final 103-59 record the second best in club history...topped only by the 1988 mark of 104-58...the Athletics became only the 11th team in the history of the game to lead the major leagues in wins three consecutive years...the first team since the 1969-71 Orioles...only one team, the 1936-39 Yankees, have led everyone in victories four consecutive years...the A's were in first place the final 86 days of the season...Dave Stewart's win on Sunday night, July 8th, the day before the All-Star break, put the A's in first for good...for the season spent 165 of the 176 days in the year in sole possession of first...largest deficit was a half game for 2 days April 11th and 12th...largest lead an 11 game margin for one day, September 12th...clinched their third consecutive AL West Title on Tuesday night, September 25 in Kansas City when Dave Stewart shutout the Royals on five hits.

THE POST SEASON: The A's swept Boston in the ALCS for the second time in three years to win their third consecutive AL pennant...Oakland is now 12-1 in the last three American League Championship Series...Dave Duncan's pitching staff held the best hitting team in the AL to just 4 runs and a .183 average over the four games...led by ALCS Most Valuable Player, Dave Stewart, the team ERA was 1.00...Stewart defeated Red Sox ace, Roger Clemens, twice, in games #1 and #4 and allowed just 2 earned runs in 16.0 innings to win the MVP award...despite not hitting one homer in the series the A's offense generated 20 runs and hit .299...with the ALCS win the A's made their third consecutive appearance in the World Series...but Cincinnati completely turned the tables and swept the A's away four games to none...the Reds pitching staff held the A's to a .207 average and outscored Oakland 22 to 8...Rickey Henderson was a bright light for the A's...Henderson hit .333 (5 for 15) in the Series with 2 doubles, a homer, 3 walks and 3 steals...despite the loss the A's were the first team to appear in three consecutive Fall Classics since the 1976-78 New York Yankees.

CONSECUTIVE TITLES: The A's won their third consecutive Western Division title and their third consecutive American League Championship...since division play began in 1969, seven teams have won three or more consecutive division titles...the A's have done it twice...Oakland has now won nine division titles, more than any other team...Baltimore is second with seven division titles...the A's also became the 21st team in baseball history to win three consecutive pennants.

CONSECUTIVE DIVISION TITLES

- 5 Oakland (1971-75)
- 3 Oakland (1988-90)
- 3 New York, AL (1976-78)
- 3 Kansas City (1976-78)
- 3 Philadelphia (1976-78)
- 3 Pittsburgh (1970-72)
- 3 Baltimore (1969-71)

CONSECUTIVE PENNANTS

- 5 New York, AL (1960-64)
- 5 New York, AL (1949-53)
- 4 New York, AL (1955-58)
- 4 New York, AL (1936-39)
- 4 New York, NL (1921-24)
- 3 16 times. Last time: Oakland, AL (1988-90)

A'S PITCHING: The A's final ERA of 3.18 topped the league by nearly a half run a game...it was the A's third consecutive ERA title...something that has not happened since the Baltimore Orioles won 5 straight ERA titles from 1969 through 1973...not only did the A's 3.18 lead the American League but it also topped the major leagues...since the inception of the designated hitter rule in the American League prior to the 1973 season only one other AL staff has led the major leagues in ERA...the 1974 A's...the Athletics 2.95 ERA that season bested the Dodger's 2.97.

THE STARTERS: The attempt to become the first team since the 1965 Dodgers to use just 5 starting pitchers fell just short as an injury to Mike Moore caused him to miss a start September 13th and Todd Burns became the sixth starter of the year...later in the month rookie Reggie Harris became the A's seventh and last starter as the A's adjusted for post season play...the starters won 89 games for the A's in 1990...the top figure in baseball...20 more than any other starting staff in the AL...(Boston had 69)...the starters ERA of 3.51 (1038.2 IP, 405 ER) was second best in the loop to the Red Sox figure of 3.32...the 7 complete game shutouts (Stewart had 4) tied the A's with Milwaukee for the top number in the league.

BULLPEN REVIEW: Once again the A's had one of the best bullpens in the game...pen finished 14-10 with a league leading 2.35 ERA...64 saves tied the club record (1988) and was second best to Chicago's major league record of 68 saves...led by Dennis Eckersley's 48 saves in 50 opportunities the pen saved 64 of 71 save opportunities...a very fine 90% success rate...the league hit just .210 vs. the A's pen...17 points lower than the next best club...a key to the pen's success the lack of homers allowed...pen was tagged for a league low 24 in 1990...a tribute to the A's starting staff...the bullpen worked 417.1 innings this season...or the third lowest total in the league behind California (406.0) and Texas (407.0).

THE OFFENSE: Despite a .254 average that was 12th in the league the A's run total of 733 was topped only by Toronto and Detroit...the run differential between what the A's scored and what the A's allowed (163) was the best in the major leagues...the home run was again a key ingredient in the offense...the Athletics total of 164 was third best to Detroit and Toronto...Mark McGwire and Jose Canseco combined to hit 76, or nearly half, of the A's homers...league MVP Rickey Henderson was the catalyst for the offense all year long...Rickey finished second in the league in batting average and topped the loop in runs, steals and on-base percentage...led by Rickey and Mark McGwire the A's walked 651 times...second only to Baltimore.

DESIGNATED HITTERS: With the departure of Dave Parker the A's used several players in the DH role until the arrival of HAROLD BAINES on August 29th...for the season manager Tony La Russa penciled in the names of 17 different players as the A's DH...combined, the A's DH hit .245 (6 points below the league average) with 15 homers and 80 RBI's...JOSE CANSECO spent the most time as the DH...appearing in 43 games with 159 at-bats...Jose also led the DH position with 6 homers and 25 RBI's...LANSFORD had the best hitting success with 9 hits in 18 at-bats as the DH (.500)...Baines, despite arriving late still finished second on the club with 19 RBI's as the DH.

PINCH-HITTERS: The A's pinch-hitters finished with the fourth best average in the league, at .240...with 37 pinch-hits in 154 at-bats...the A's .240 average was 18 points above the league average of .222...a couple of catchers were the primary men for manager La Russa...RON HASSEY had the most at bats (20) and pinch-hits (6) for a .300 average...but JAMIE QUIRK was the most successful with 4 hits in 11 trips with a homer, 4 RBI's and 3 walks...pitcher RICK HONEYCUTT made 2 pinch appearances...Rick was 0 for 2 but became the first A's pitcher to hit in more than 3 years.

FIELDING: Anchored by Rawlings Gold Glove first baseman, MARK MCGWIRE, the 1990 A's were the best fielding team in club history...in fact the A's tied a major league record for best fielding percentage for a season, team, at .986...for the first time over a full season the Athletics made fewer than 100 errors, finishing with 87.

A'S AT HOME: Finished 51-30 at the Coliseum to tie with Boston for the best home record in the loop...only Chicago and Toronto got the best the A's at home...the White Sox winning 5 of 6 from the Athletics at the Coliseum...the Jays 4 of 6...the A's were 29-13 at home vs. the AL East and 22-17 at the Coliseum vs. the West.

A'S ON THE ROAD: A's had the best road record in the majors at 52-29 (.642) by six games...second best in club history...1971 A's had 55 wins, an American League record...only 5 major league clubs finished with a .500 or better mark on the road...in the American League the A's, Toronto and Chicago...in the NL only division winners Cincinnati and Pittsburgh...it was the third consecutive season the A's have had the best road mark in the AL...Oakland 147-96 (.605).

A'S VS. THE WEST: Were 47-31 with AL West foes in 1990...Chicago the only club to hold the advantage over the A's with 8 wins in 13 games...the Athletics were 9-4 vs. California, Kansas City and Seattle.

A'S VS. THE EAST: A's finished 56-28 against the A.L. East in 1990...Detroit fared the best against the A's, winning six of 12...over the past three years, the A's are 166-86 (.659) and since La Russa took over the A's in July of 1986, the A's are 240-136 (.638).

A'S VS. YANKEES: Swept the season series from the New York...only three teams have swept season series since 1900...Baltimore was 12-0 against Kansas City in 1970 and 11-0 against the A's in 1978...Kansas City was 12-0 against Baltimore in 1988.

A'S AND ATTENDANCE: Had a spectacular season in attendance both home and away...for the third consecutive year broke the franchise record for home attendance...and did it with one less date than a year ago...home attendance finished at 2,900,217...a new record for a Bay Area professional sports franchise...20 sellouts also a club record, breaking the mark of 19 set in 1989...also set a new major league road attendance record by attracting 2,597,920...broke the Yankees record of 2,561,195 set in 1988...third consecutive season the A's have drawn more the 2,000,000 at home and on the road...A's drew a total of 5,498,137 both home and away, the 5th largest total in M.L. history...A's drew 518,330 on a 14 date homestand from July 12-26...that total was larger than the Oakland season totals for 1977 (495,412) and 1979 (306,763).

DOWN THE STRETCH: The A's set a club record with 20 wins in the month of September last year...over the last three years, Oakland is a combined 56-25 (.691) in September and 115-56 (.673) from August 1 until the end of the regular season.

1990 ALCS BOXSCORES

GAME #1, October 6 at Boston A's 9, Red Sox 1

Dave Stewart and Roger Clemens engaged in a pitcher's duel, and when Clemens left after six innings, the Red Sox had a 1-0 lead on Wade Boggs solo home run in the fourth...after tallying just four hits in the first six innings off Clemens, the A's scored nine runs on nine hits off the Boston bullpen over the final three innings...Stewart, meanwhile, pitched just as well...except for the Boggs home run, he allowed just one runner to reach as far as second and never had more than one runner on base in any inning...the A's tied the game in the seventh inning as Rickey Henderson's sacrifice fly drove in Walt Weiss...Jose Canseco singled to open the eighth, was sacrificed to second and stole third...Carney Lansford then singled him home with the go ahead run...the A's then tied an ALCS record by scoring seven runs in the ninth inning to seal the win.

Game #2, October 7 at Boston A's 4, Red Sox 1

The A's take a 2-0 lead in the best of seven series, coming from behind for the second consecutive game...Oakland starter Bob Welch allows the Red Sox one run over 7 1/3 innings of work...a Carlos Quintana sacrifice fly in the third gives the Red Sox their only run...the A's come right back to tie the game as Willie McGee doubles to lead off the fourth inning...he scores on a Harold Baines single...the Red Sox threaten in the sixth, loading the bases with two outs, but Welch gets out of it and the A's take the lead in the seventh...Mike Gallego and Rickey Henderson single to start the inning, and after a fielder's choice forces Henderson, Jose Canseco walks to load the bases...Baines then grounds out to drive in Gallego with the go ahead run...Welch allows a pair of one-out singles in the eighth, but Rick Honeycutt gets a fielder's choice and Dennis Eckersley retires the final four batters for the save...the A's add two insurance runs in the ninth as Baines doubles home McGee and Mark McGwire singles home Canseco.

DID YOU KNOW...

That 12 of the 37 players on the A's 40-man roster were first round selections in the June free agent draft. Of the 12, two were the first picks in the draft. Harold Baines was selected first in 1977 by the Chicago White Sox and Mike Moore was the number one pick in the 1981 draft by the Seattle Mariners. The others were Reggie Harris (26th pick, Boston Red Sox, 1987), Scott Hemond (12th pick, Oakland A's, 1986), Dave Henderson (26th pick, Seattle Mariners, 1977), Mark McGwire (10th pick, Oakland A's, 1984), Jamie Quirk (18th pick, Kansas City Royals, 1972), Lee Tinsley (11th pick, Oakland A's, 1987), Todd Van Poppel (14th pick, Oakland A's, 1990), Walt Weiss (11th pick, Oakland A's, 1985), Bob Welch (20th pick, Los Angeles Dodgers, 1977) and Willie Wilson (18th pick, Kansas City Royals, 1974).

DID YOU KNOW...

Since 1900, four teams have swept season series, and the A's have been involved in two of them. In 1978 Baltimore won all 11 games against Oakland, but in 1990, the A's were 12-0 against the New York Yankees. The other two times involved Baltimore and Kansas City. Baltimore was 12-0 against Kansas City in 1970, but the Royals won all 12 against the Orioles in 1988.

DID YOU KNOW...

Only the New York Yankees have won more World Series than the Athletics franchise. The Yankees have won 22 titles while the Athletics won five in Philadelphia and four in Oakland. The St. Louis Cardinals have also won nine world titles. The Dodgers franchise has won six and Boston, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and the Giants franchise have won five each.

DID YOU KNOW...

Current A's teammates Dave Stewart and Rick Honeycutt were traded for each other earlier in their careers. On August 19, 1983 Honeycutt was traded from the Texas Rangers to the Los Angeles Dodgers for Stewart and a player to be named later. Texas later received pitcher Ricky Wright to complete the deal.

JEFFREY LYNN NEWMAN

Born: Fort Worth, Texas, September 11, 1949

Bats: Right

Throws: Right

Height: 6-2

Weight: 210

Catcher in his playing career.

Jeff Newman is in his first season as manager of the A's Triple-A affiliate after spending two years at Huntsville (AA) and one year at Modesto (A). In 1989 he earned Southern League Manager of the Year honors as a second half turnaround led the Stars into the playoffs. After he stopped playing in 1985, Jeff took a year off before becoming an instructor with the A's farm system in 1986. Before that, Newman was a player for the A's from 1976 through 1982. In 1983, he was sent to the Boston Red Sox along with Tony Armas for third baseman Carney Lansford. In Jeff's seven seasons with Oakland, he averaged .229 with 59 home runs. Newman's career average was .224 with 63 homers. His playing career began with the Cleveland Indians organization, where he was their 25th round selection in the June, 1970 free agent draft. He never played for the Indians' big club, and was sold to the A's in 1976. He made his major league debut in 1976 with the A's. His best year in the A's organization was in 1979. That year Jeff appeared in 143 games for the team and batted .231 with 22 homers (tops on the team) and 71 RBIs. Jeff attended Texas Christian University where he graduated with a B.S. in Education.

1990 TACOMA TIGERS RECAP

Record: 75-67

1st Half: 43-27, 1st - North

2nd Half: 32-40, 4th - North

Playoffs: Lost to Edmonton 3-2 in best of five semi-finals

The Tigers put together a 75-67 overall record and went on to the playoffs, winning the 1st half in the Northern Division of the Pacific Coast League. Tacoma lost a best of five playoff series to second half winner Edmonton, 3-2. Pitching is often called the name of the game and that was truly the case with the Tigers. SCOTT CHIAMPARINO, who was sent to Texas along with JOE BITKER in exchange for HAROLD BAINES had a fine season before joining the Rangers in September, compiling a 13-9 record and a 3.28 ERA. Righthander RAY YOUNG combined with Chiamparino to give the Tigers a potent 1-2 punch, as he went 14-7 with a 4.20 ERA and 137 strikeouts in 165 innings. Offensively, the Tigers were led by KEVIN WARD, who compiled a .297 average to go along with 30 doubles, 14 triples, 10 homers and 60 RBIs. Catchers TROY AFENIR (15 HR, 47 RBI) and RUSS MCGINNIS (13 HR, 77 RBI) each had solid power years and DARREN LEWIS (.291, 16 SB) and DOUG JENNINGS (.345, 19 2B) each were impressive in limited stints with the Tigers.

CASEY ROBERT PARSONS

Born: Wenatchee, Washington, April 15, 1954
Bats: Left Throws: Left
Height: 6-1 Weight: 180

Outfielder in his playing career.

Casey Parsons takes over at Huntsville after managing the A's Single-A affiliate at Madison last year and the A's rookie club at Scottsdale in 1989. He began his coaching career as a player-coach for the Kansas City Royals' Double-A affiliate in Memphis, Tennessee. The native of Wenatchee, Washington began his playing career with the San Francisco Giants after earning a Bachelor of Arts degree from Gonzaga University. He split the 1976 season between rookie-league Great Falls and Single-A Fresno. He combined to hit over .320 that season and was rewarded with a promotion to Double-A Waterbury in 1977. After hitting .298 for Waterbury, Parsons spent the next two-plus seasons with the Giants' Triple-A team in Phoenix. During the 1980 season he was sold to the Seattle Mariners, finishing that year with their Triple-A affiliate in Spokane. He finally made his major league debut in 1981, hitting .227 for the Mariners. For the next six seasons, Parsons bounced from Triple-A to the major leagues a number of times. He also bounced between a number of organizations, including the White Sox, Cardinals, Indians and Royals before being hired by the A's prior to 1989.

1990 HUNTSVILLE STARS RECAP

Record: 79-65 1st Half: 41-31, 2nd - West
2nd Half: 38-34, 3rd - West

Huntsville had the second best record in the A's minor league system, going 79-65. Unfortunately, they found themselves watching the Southern League playoffs, just missing out in each half. The Stars featured infielder SCOTT BROSIUS who had one of the finest offensive seasons in all of minor league baseball. Brosius hit .296 with 39 doubles, 2 triples, 23 homers and 88 RBIs, while walking and striking out 81 times each. He had also scored 94 runs and stolen 12 bases before a late-season promotion to Tacoma. TONY BROWN (.290, 29 2B, 10 HR, 60 RBIs) and STAN ROYER (.258, 29 2B, 14 HR, 89 RBIs) each had fine offensive seasons for the Stars as well. Huntsville also featured one of the finest relief pitchers in the league in Stanford product STEVE CHITREN, who finished the year 2-4 with a 1.68 ERA and a league-leading 27 saves. Chitren's season-long performance earned him a September call up to the big league team. DAN ESKEW (14-3, 3.34), WILL SCHOCK (11-7, 3.22) and DANA ALLISON (7-1, 2.39, 2 saves) each put together fine seasons for Huntsville's mound staff as well.

THEODORE RODGER KUBIAK

Born: New Brunswick, New Jersey, May 12, 1942

Bats: Right Throws: Right

Height: 6-0 Weight: 175

Infielder in his playing career.

Ted Kubiak returns for his third season at the helm of the A's Single-A affiliate in Modesto. A familiar name to A's fans, Kubiak played in Oakland when the A's won their three straight World Championships between 1972 and '74. A utility infielder, who played all four of the infield positions, Kubiak played parts of 12 seasons in the major leagues. He began his career in the then-Kansas City A's organization and played six full years in the minors before finally making his major league debut with the Kansas City A's in 1967. He remained in the majors from that point through the 1976 season. His finest offensive seasons were the 1968, '69 and '70 seasons, when he hit .250, .249 and .252, respectively. After beginning his career with Kansas City, then Oakland, he was traded to the Seattle Pilots after the 1969 season. The Pilots moved to Milwaukee and became the Brewers and Kubiak remained with them until being traded to St. Louis during the 1971 season. He was traded to the Texas Rangers following the 1971 season and was later traded back to the A's in 1972. He spent that season and the following three years in Oakland, helping them to three World Championships before once again being traded, this time from Oakland to San Diego, where he closed out his playing career.

Record: 59-82

1st Half: 28-42, 4th - North

2nd Half: 31-40, 4th - North

Though it struggled through another tough season, the A's Modesto affiliate had a number of performances and players to note. On the mound, lefthander JOHNNY GUZMAN went 7-4 with a 1.91 ERA before being promoted to Huntsville about midway through the season. The product of the A's program in the Dominican Republic pitched 84.2 innings and allowed just 67 hits, while striking out 58. Despite a 3-11 record, APOLINAR GARCIA, another product of the Dominican Republic, put together a 3.59 ERA, going 123 innings and allowing just 113 hits, while striking out 96. Offensively, DWAYNE HOSEY had an outstanding season for the A's, hitting .294, with 21 doubles, 5 triples, 16 homers, 61 RBIs and 30 stolen bases. SCOTT SHOCKEY hit .325 with 9 homers and 50 RBIs in just 200 at-bats in Modesto and JOEL CHIMELIS hit .346 in 46 games with the A's, after spending most of the season with Reno.

GARY WAYNE JONES

Born: Henderson, Texas, November 11, 1960

Bats: Left Throws: Right

Height: 5-9 Weight: 163

Infielder in his playing career.

Gary Jones takes over at Madison this year after managing at Scottsdale last year. He served as player-coach in Huntsville in 1989 and finished his playing career with a .275 average. Jones came to the A's organization from the Chicago Cubs along with John Cox in exchange for Bob Bathe and Phil Stephenson prior to the 1986 season and had perhaps his finest season ever. That year he hit .311, stole 34 bases and scored 116 runs. He was promoted to Tacoma for the 1987 and '88 seasons before taking his player-coach position in Huntsville. After being drafted by the Cubs in 1982, Jones began his pro career in Geneva of the New York-Penn League. He played just two games there before being promoted and finishing the season at Sarasota of the Gulf Coast League, where he hit .349 and stole 18 bases in just 29 games. From there, he spent three more years with the Cubs before being acquired by the A's. A native of Henderson, Texas, Jones was a four-sport letterman at Henderson High School. From there it was on to Paris Junior College for two years and the University of Arkansas. As a Razorback, Jones was a first-team All Southwest Conference selection.

1990 MADISON MUSKIES RECAP

Record: 74-61 1st Half: 40-28, 1st - North

2nd Half: 34-33, 4th - North

Playoffs: Lost to South Bend in best of three semi-final, 2-0.

The Muskies led the A's Player Development System with a 74-61 record, earning themselves a berth in the Midwest League playoffs, where they lost to South Bend two games to zero. Still, the playoff loss could not put a damper on what was an excellent season. FRED COOLEY was the team's leader offensively, putting together an excellent power year. The big first baseman hit .259 with 13 doubles, a triple, 22 homers and 66 RBIs in just 101 games. LEE TINSLEY continued to show promise, recording a .251 average to go along with 14 doubles, 11 triples, 12 homers, 59 RBIs and 44 stolen bases. GAVIN OSTEEN, the son of former major league pitcher and coach Claude Osteen, led the Muskies pitching staff, going 10-10 with a 3.10 ERA. In 154 innings, he allowed 126 hits and struck out 120. DARIN KRACL was 10-2 with a 1.98 ERA before being promoted to Huntsville and MATT GROTT was 2-0 with an 0.36 ERA and 12 saves before being moved to Modesto. In three late-season appearances, TODD VAN POPPEL, the A's No. 1 choice in the June free agent draft, was 2-1 with a 3.95 ERA and 17 strikeouts in 13.2 innings.

GRADY LEE FUSON

Born: San Diego, California, April 19, 1956

Bats: Right Throws: Right

Height: 5-9 Weight: 170

Infielder in his playing career.

Returning to the helm for the third consecutive season in Southern Oregon is Grady Fuson. A member of the A's organization since 1982, Fuson had managed the Medford club for the A's in 1985 and had been a coach in Idaho Falls in 1982 and '83 and in Modesto in 1984. He also served as an instructor with the A's Scottsdale team in 1988. In addition to his on-field duties, Fuson has been a scout with the A's organization since he was hired in 1982. He was promoted to national cross checker following the 1990 season. A San Diego native, Fuson played baseball, football and soccer at Kearny High School, where his classmates included Detroit Tigers' star Alan Trammell. Fuson was named to the San Diego City All-Star team in 1974. From there, he went on to attend the University of Puget Sound from 1975 through 1978. Fuson signed with the Salem Senators in the Northwest League in 1978, and that season he hit .317 to finish 7th in the league batting race. After playing with Salem again in 1979, he returned to Puget Sound and at the time he was the youngest NCAA Division I coach in the country. In the summer and fall of 1981 he coached at the University of Washington before joining the A's in 1982.

1990 SOUTHERN OREGON A's RECAP

Record: 40-36, 2nd - South

After getting off to a very slow start, winning just 2 of their first 13 games, the Southern Oregon A's came back to play very solid baseball over the remainder of the season, finishing in 2nd place in the Southern Division of the Northwest League with their 40-36 record. The story for the A's was pitching, which was no coincidence since the A's first 5 picks in the draft were all pitchers. Those five picks and their stats in Medford: righthander KIRK DRESSENDORFER (0-1, 2.33 ERA, 22 SO in 19.1 IP) from the University of Texas, righthander DON PETERS (1-1, 0.76 ERA, 34 SO in 35.2 IP) from the College of St. Francis, lefthander CURTIS SHAW (4-6, 3.53 ERA, 74 SO in 66.1 IP) from Kansas University, righthander TODD VAN POPPEL (1-1, 1.13 ERA, 32 SO in 24 IP) from Martin HS in Arlington, Texas and DAVE ZANCANARO (3-0, 3.86 ERA, 42 SO in 44.2 IP) a lefthander from UCLA and Sacramento. Two other pitchers who had excellent seasons for the A's were JIM DILLON, who was named Minor League Pitcher of the Week for the last week of the season and went 4-1 with a 1.54 ERA and TODD REVENIG who had 6 saves and a 0.81 ERA. Offensively, the A's were led by former San Jose State star ERIC BOOKER who hit .305 and had 4 homers and 33 RBIs.

Infielder in his playing career.

Dickie Scott begins his first year as manager in the A's organization with Oakland's Scottsdale affiliate in the Arizona league. He played professional ball for 10 years, including his last two with A's organization at Tacoma. He batted .308 last year as a player-coach at the A's Triple-A affiliate. Scott made his only major league appearance with the A's in 1989. He was 0 for 2 in three games but did drive in a run during his two-week stay. He was signed by the A's as a minor league six-year free agent following the 1988 season after spending eight years in the New York Yankee organization. Originally a 17th round selection of the Yankees in the June, 1981 draft, he played at every level in the Yankee chain except the major leagues. After spending his first year in pro ball at Bradenton of the Gulf Coast League, Scott batted .500 in a brief five-game stint with the Yankees AAA Columbus team. He had perhaps his most productive season with Ft. Lauderdale of the Florida State league in 1984, batting .245 with 6 home runs and 37 RBI. In 1986, he hit .270 at Columbus and he finished his career in the Yankee organization at Albany (AA) in 1988.

1990 SCOTTSDALE A's RECAP

Record: 25-27 (4th)

The A's affiliate in the Arizona Rookie League had a solid season, finishing 2 games under the .500 mark with a 25-27 record. The A's were led by ROBERT CARLSEN, who hit .367, and catcher ISLAY MOLINA, who hit .352 with 12 doubles, 2 triples and 18 RBIs. Also having solid offensive seasons were TONY PRITCHETT (.276, 6 2B, 9 3B, 3 HR, 34 RBIs, 20 SB) and JEFF DUNCAN (.252, 12 2B, 2 3B, 2 HR, 27 RBIs). JOSE ACOSTA led the A's with 5 wins and RICK MILLER from nearby Grand Canyon College went 4-0 with a 3.38 ERA.

BAY BRIDGE SERIES

The Bay Bridge series was initiated by the Athletics and the San Francisco Giants prior to the 1982 season. The series was originally a two-game set with the winner, in case of a tie, being decided by either a home-run hitting contest or most hits. In 1989, a three-game series was initiated. In 1990, the 10th annual Bay Bridge series will once again be a three-game format with the first two games to be played at the Coliseum April 5-6, and the third game at Candlestick Park April 7.

A's ON THE AIR

BILL KING, Director of Broadcast Operations, enters his 11th year of play-by-play for the A's. In addition to his work with the A's, Bill is the voice of the Los Angeles Raiders. His works with the Raiders began in 1966 and it has included four Super Bowls. From 1962 through the 1982-83 season King was the play-by-play voice of the NBA Golden State Warriors. His style of broadcasting combines knowledge of the game with a special ability to paint word pictures which bring the radio listeners right into the action. King had his sport broadcast origins in baseball. He played semi-pro baseball as a youngster in the mid-west and his first play-by-play job was for a club in Pekin, Illinois in 1948. Bill makes his home in Marin County.

LON SIMMONS begins his 11th year of play-by-play for the A's in 1990. Prior to joining the A's in 1982, Lon was well known in the Bay Area for play-by-play work with the San Francisco Giants and the San Francisco 49ers of the NFL. A native of Southern California, Lon was a three sport high school star in track, football and baseball. He signed a professional contract with the Philadelphia Phillies, but an injury cut short his promising pitching career after just two seasons in the minor leagues. His sportscasting career took him from Fresno to San Francisco in 1958 when major league baseball came out west. Lon paired with Russ Hodges to form one of the top announcing teams in the game. It was at this same time that Lon was building a solid reputation with play-by-play work for the 49ers. Lon has broadcast four World Series and one Super Bowl. Simmons is single and resides in Alameda.

RAY FOSSE begins his sixth year as a member of the A's radio broadcast team, bringing with him the ability to inject a former player's point of view into game broadcasts. Ray started his playing career in 1965 with Reading of the Eastern League. He saw his first major league action in 1967 with the Cleveland Indians, before finally breaking into the majors for good at the end of the '68 season. He spent five years with the Tribe before being traded to the A's prior to 1983. Ironically, one of the players the A's gave up to get Fosse is current A's pitching coach Dave Duncan. He went back to Cleveland in 1976, and finished up his playing career in 1979 with the Milwaukee Brewers. In 12 years of major league ball, Ray batted .256 with 61 home runs in 924 games. Ray had been a member of the A's front office for three years before devoting all his energies to broadcasting in 1987. In addition to his radio duties, Ray will once again team with Monte Moore on the A's over-the-air-television network.

SYLVESTER JACKSON begins his fourth season with the A's broadcasting team in 1991 as the host of the "A's Baseball Journal," a magazine show that covers a wide range of baseball topics. This season Sylvester will also host and co-produce "The A's Inside Pitch", a 30-minute TV show which is designed to give the viewer an up close and personal insight into the players and front office staff of the Oakland A's. A native of Brooklyn, Jackson graduated from Harlem Prep before moving on to Boston College, where he earned his B.A. in Economics in 1977. Sylvester's broadcasting career began with WBZ Radio and TV in Boston. After moving to the Bay Area in 1980, Sylvester did freelance work for KTVU Channel 2 and was the News Director at KTIM Radio. Sylvester also works with a number of professional athletes and entertainers in the Bay Area as a speech coach and image consultant. Jackson, 34, and his wife, Marilyn, have a son (Noah) and a daughter (Jolieba) and reside in Mill Valley.

MONTE MOORE returns to the A's in 1991 as the team's play-by-play man for the over-the-air television broadcasts. He will team up with Ray Fosse for all games on the A's network. Monte's upbeat style and smooth delivery has made him a long-time favorite of A's fans. He began his professional baseball announcing career in 1962 with the then Kansas City A's. When the team moved to Oakland in 1968, so did Monte, and he continued to be the voice of the A's through 1977. From there, he broadcast baseball for NBC TV for three years (77-79) and then handled baseball coverage for the USA Network for six years (79-85). In 1987, Monte returned to the A's to fill in for Lon Simmons and Bill King when they were away covering football. Monte is married, has two sons and a daughter, and resides in Porterville, CA.

GREG PAPA, returns for his second season as A's play-by-play man on SportsChannel. In addition to his work with the A's, Papa also handles play-by-play for the Golden State Warriors Radio Network and Big West football on SportsChannel. He has been with the Warriors since the 1986-87 season. Before coming to the Bay Area, Papa spent two years as an announcer/analyst for the Indiana Pacers' 55-station radio network. He has also done occasional work for NBC and ESPN. He is a graduate of Syracuse University's Newhouse School of Broadcasting. Papa and his wife, Lisa, make their home in Alameda.

REGGIE JACKSON, returns to the Oakland A's, this time as analyst for SportsChannel. He comes to SportsChannel after a year as analyst for California Angels telecasts on KTLA. Jackson has also been a contributor to ABC's coverage of Major League Playoffs and the World Series. Jackson spent 10 of his 21 major league seasons with the A's, beginning his career in 1967 and ending it in 1987. He left Oakland after the 1975 season, and after a year in Baltimore, he played five seasons for the New York Yankees. He also played for the California Angels from 1982-86, before returning to the A's for his final season. Jackson finished his career with 563 home runs (sixth all-time) and appeared in 12 All-Star games, 11

League Championship Series and 5 World Series. Jackson owns residences in Oakland and Newport Beach.

BILL RIGNEY, begins his second season as analyst on SportsChannel. His broadcast experience includes a one-year stint on the A's radio network in 1974 and two-years on the A's television network in 1983 and '84. A Bay area product, Rigney has been involved in the game of baseball as a player, manager, scout and executive since 1938. His last minor league stop was in Oakland with the Oaks of the Pacific Coast League. "Rig" served as an infielder with New York from 1946-53. He became manager of the Giants in 1956 and followed the club west to San Francisco. He also managed the expansion Los Angeles Angels from 1961-69 and the Minnesota Twins from 1970-72, including a Western Division title in 1970. Following that, he served as a scout for San Diego before returning to the Giants to manage in 1976. He retired following that season and in 1978 returned to advance and special assignment scouting with the California Angels. Following the 1982 season, the A's hired Bill as a special assistant to President Roy Eisenhardt. In addition to his announcing duties, Rigney currently assists the A's in baseball matters.

AMAURY PI-GONZALEZ returns for his 10th season as the A's Spanish play-by-play voice. Amaury was born in Cuba but moved to Florida in 1961. He attended the University of Miami and did Spanish broadcasts for Miami's WFAB radio. He came to the Bay Area in 1970 and has since become the area's premier Spanish language sportscaster. He has covered the World Series, Super Bowls, boxing, basketball and soccer for Spanish Radio, and he maintains a selected correspondent status with Spanish stations and newspapers outside the Bay Area. From 1985-87 he was a member of the CBS Spanish radio network play-by-play team that covered baseball's championship series and World Series. Amaury also anchored the A's Spanish network broadcasts for both the 1989 and 1990 ALCS and World Series. Amaury makes his home in Fremont, California with his wife, Gail, and two children.

ERWIN HIGUEROS begins his third season with the A's Spanish Radio. He was born in Guatemala, and moved to the United States when he was 12 years old. A graduate of Fremont High School in Oakland, Erwin also attended Cal State Hayward and Columbia School of Broadcasting. He has worked at KNTA the past three years, and his duties include the Tony La Russa Show. In addition to play-by-play, Higueros is also responsible for the engineering and production of the entire broadcast. Erwin and his wife, Maria, have two children.

A's RADIO-TELEVISION/SPORTSCHANNEL

The Oakland Athletic's will televise 117 regular season games this year, including 55 on Cable SportsChannel. The Athletics over-the-air television network will once again be led by KPIX-TV 5 in San Francisco and KICU-TV 36 in San Jose. Monte Moore and Ray Fosse return to call the games on KPIX and KICU while the announcers for SportsChannel include Greg Papa, Reggie Jackson and Bill Rigney. See below for a list of the television network stations.

For the 11th consecutive season the A's radio flagship station is KSFO (560 AM) in San Francisco. Bill King, Lon Simmons and Ray Fosse all return to call the action for all 162 games of the regular season plus weekend spring training games and all spring contests vs. San Francisco. A's home games can also be heard in Spanish on KNTA (1430 AM). Amaury Pi-Gonzales and Erwin Higueros will handle the play-by-play.

BEHIND THE SCENES

ALLAN PONT M.D.
Team Physician

Dr. Allan Pont starts his seventh year as the A's Team Physician. Born and raised in Montreal, Canada, he received his B.S. and M.D. degrees from McGill University in Montreal. After completing his internship and residency at McGill, Dr. Pont went on to complete his subspecialty work in endocrinology at Harvard University. Currently the Chairman of the Department of Medicine at Children's Hospital in San Francisco, Dr. Pont is involved in teaching, administration and has a private practice in internal medicine. He and wife Joan have a son (Sean) and reside in Marin County.

RICK BOST M.D.
Team Orthopedist

For the 10th consecutive season, Dr. Rick Bost has served as the A's Team Orthopedist. Currently the Assistant Director of the neuromuscular clinic at Children's Hospital in San Francisco, Dr. Bost grew up in San Francisco, and, in fact, was born at the same hospital in which he now practices. After completing his undergraduate work at Yale, Dr. Bost went on to do his medical training at Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia. Upon completion of his orthopedics training at Harvard, Dr. Bost spent two years in the army. He and wife Mary have a daughter (Kirsten) and a son (Toby) and reside in Marin County.

MICKEY MORABITO
Director of Team Travel

Mickey Morabito returns for his 12th season as the A's Director of Team Travel. A native of Brooklyn, Mickey earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Physical Education from Hunter College in New York. His baseball career began in 1970 as a bat boy for the New York Yankees and he worked his way through the organization before becoming the Yankees' Director of Public Relations in 1977. He held that position through the 1979 season, and moved to the A's just prior to the 1980 season. He makes his home in Alameda.

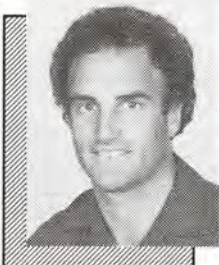

FRANK CIENSCZYK
Equipment Manager

Frank Ciensczyk has been a fixture in the A's clubhouse since the franchise arrived in Oakland in 1968. The 1991 season will be Frank's 24th in charge of the A's uniforms, bats, gloves and all other equipment. He spent 21 years in the U.S. Army, serving in both World War II and Korea. His baseball career began with the San Francisco Giants when they moved west in 1958. Frank makes his home in San Leandro.

STEVE VUCINICH
Visiting Clubhouse Manager

Steve Vucinich joined the Oakland A's organization as a ball boy when the franchise moved to Oakland in 1968, and in 1969 he took over the responsibilities of the A's assistant clubhouse manager. In 1974, Steve was named to his present position of Visiting Clubhouse Manager. An Oakland native, he graduated from St. Joseph's High School in Alameda and Chabot College in Hayward. Known as the Oakland A's historian, Steve resides in Castro Valley with his wife, Valerie.

BARRY WEINBERG
Trainer

Barry Weinberg begins his 10th season as the trainer for the A's. A native of Silver Spring, Maryland, Barry graduated from Springfield College in Springfield, Massachusetts with a degree in Physical Education. He then entered Indiana University where he received his Masters Degree in Athletic Training in 1976. He spent 5 years working in the Pittsburgh Pirates minor league system before joining the New York Yankees as an assistant trainer in 1979. Barry was named to the A's trainer position following the 1981 season. He resides in Alameda.

LARRY DAVIS
Assistant Trainer

After eleven years in the minor leagues, Larry Davis made his major league debut with the A's in 1984. Raised in Tucson, Arizona, Larry attended the University of Arizona where he majored in Physical Education. His baseball career began in 1973 with the Tucson Toros, then the Triple-A affiliate of the A's. He served as the Toros' trainer, traveling secretary and equipment manager. Larry maintained those duties for the A's Triple-A club as it moved from San Jose to Vancouver to Ogden to Tacoma. Larry and his wife Suzi make their home in Castro Valley.

GLOSSARY OF MEDICAL TERMS

AC JOINT - Acromioclavicular joint; joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

ANTERIOR - in front of; the front surface of.

ANTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (ACL) - A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

ANTI-INFLAMMATORY - Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

ARTHROGRAM - X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

ARTHROSCOPY - A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

CARTILAGE - Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together.

CAT SCAN - Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

CONCUSSION - Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

CONTUSION - An injury to muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

DISC - A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion for the spinal column.

FEMUR - Thigh bone; largest bone in the body.

FIBULA - Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from the knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

INFLAMMATION - The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

LATERAL - To the outside of the body.

MEDIAL - To the inside of the body.

LIGAMENT - Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone, or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

MAGNETIC RESONANCE IMAGING (MRI) - Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

MEDIAL COLLATERAL LIGAMENT (MCL) - Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

MENISCUS - Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." There are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

POSTERIOR - At the back part, or rear of the body.

POSTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (PCL) - A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

QUADRICEP MUSCLES "QUADS" - A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

ROTATOR CUFF - Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

ROTATOR CUFF IMPINGEMENT SYNDROME - A microtrauma or overuse injury caused by stress. The four stages are: 1) tendinitis with temporary thickening of the bursa and rotator cuff. 2) fiber dissociation in the tendon with permanent thickening of the bursa and scar formation. 3) A partial rotator cuff tear of less than 1 cm. and 4) A complete tear of 1 cm or more.

SHIN SPLINT - A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor, and cannot be defined otherwise.

SPRAIN - Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint and causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

STRAIN - Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

STRESS FRACTURE - A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

TENDINITIS - Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

TENDON - Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

TIBIA - Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

ULNAR NERVE - Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

ULTRASOUND - An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

NOTE: This list is not meant to be all inclusive, nor should it be used as a substitute for a physician's diagnosis and/or description of an injury or illness. For further definitions, please refer to the Stedman's Pocket Medical Dictionary published by Williams and Wilkins.
